ARTICLE III.

Corporate Purposes

The Corporation is organized as a mobile education laboratory and shall be a nonprofit organization formed and operated exclusively for educational and charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code. The Corporation's purpose is to provide and deliver a wide range of project-based, hands-on curriculum for educators and learners in both the formal and informal learning environments to enhance student achievement in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM). The Corporation will promote awareness that science is in our everyday lives and assist students to realize career paths in STEM related fields further enhancing our next pool of innovators. The Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and to which deductible contributions may be made under Sections 170, 2055, or 2522 of the Internal Revenue Code, as applicable. No part of the assets or the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any officer, director, member, or any other person; provided, however, the Corporation is authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these Articles. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be dedicated to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise. The Corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE IV.

Term of Corporate Existence

This Corporation shall have perpetual existence unless dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE V.

Corporate Powers

This Corporation shall have and exercise all the powers accorded not for profit corporations under the laws of the State of Florida which are not in conflict with the Corporation's exempt purposes as provided hereinabove.

ARTICLE VI.

Members

The Corporation shall have no members. The management of the affairs of the Corporation shall be vested in a Board of Directors, as defined in the Corporation's Bylaws.

ARTICLE VII.
Board of Directors

The powers of the Corporation shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the affairs of the Corporation shall be managed under the direction of a Board of Directors, the number of which may be either increased or decreased from time to time as regulated by the Bylaws but shall consist of not fewer than three (3). The manner and method of election of the Board of Directors shall be as stated in the Bylaws of the Corporation. Where not inconsistent with Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, and the express provisions of these Articles, the Board of Directors shall have all the rights, powers, and privileges prescribed by law of directors of corporations for profit. The initial Board of Directors of the Corporation shall consist of three (3) members, as set forth below, who shall hold office for such terms as provided in the Bylaws of the Corporation and until their successors have been elected and qualified or until their earlier resignation, removal from office, inability to act, or death:

TRISH A. HANSON	305 N. Dellview Drive Tallahassee, Florida 32303
