ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF CULTURAL EVENTS OF FLORIDA, INC.

The undersigned, acting as incorporator of Cultural Events of Florida, Inc. hereby makes, subscribes, acknowledges, and files with the Florida Department of State these Articles of Incorporation for the purpose of forming a not for profit corporation in accordance with the laws of Florida.

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of the Corporation shall be Cultural Events of Florida, Inc. hereinafter the "Corporation."

ARTICLE II - ADDRESS

The principal place of business and mailing address of the corporation shall be:
1620 Spinning Wheel Drive, Lutz, Florida 33559-3346

ARTICLE III - REGISTERED OFFICE AND AGENT

The Corporation hereby (i) designates 1620 Spinning Wheel Drive, Lutz, Florida 33559-3346 as the street address of the Corporation's registered office, and (ii) Sandra Acevedo, as the Corporation's registered agent at that address to accept service of process within the State of Florida.

ARTICLE IV - MEMBERS

The Corporation may have members as set forth in the Bylaws but shall not issue membership certificates or shares of stock.

ARTICLE V - NOT FOR PROFIT

The Corporation is a not for profit corporation under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes. The Corporation is not formed for pecuniary profit. No part of the income or assets of the corporation is distributable to or for the benefit of its directors or officers, except to the extent permissible under these Articles, under law and under 26 U.S.C.A. § 501 (c) (3). If the Corporation ever has members, no member shall have any vested right, interest or privilege in or to the assets, income or property of the corporation and no part of the income or assets of the corporation shall be distributable to or for the benefit of its members, except to the extent permissible under these Articles, under law and under 26 U.S.C.A. § 501 (c) (3).

ARTICLE VI - DURATION AND EXISTENCE; EFFECTIVE DATE

The Corporation will exist perpetually. These Articles of Incorporation shall be effective as of the date of filing with the Secretary of State of Florida.

ARTICLE VII - PURPOSE

The Corporation is organized, and shall be operated, exclusively for cultural, charitable, and educational purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Its main purpose shall be to promote cultural and educational Hispanic events.

ARTICLE VIII - POWERS

- A. Solely for the above purposes, the corporation shall have the following powers: To arrange for, sponsor, co-sponsor, organize, promote, enhance or otherwise contribute to cultural and educational events that advance the Hispanic culture, values and traditions throughout the state of Florida and any other states or countries.
- B. To exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida on nonprofit corporations, including but not limited to those set forth in the Florida Statutes, Chapter 617 and the powers: to acquire by bequest, devise, gift, grant, donation, contribution, purchase, lease or otherwise any property of any sort or nature without limitation as to its amount or value, and to hold, invest, reinvest, manage, use, apply, employ, sell, expend, disburse, lease, mortgage, convey, option, donate or otherwise dispose of the property and the income, principal and proceeds of the Corporation.
- C. To engage in and transact any other lawful activity, solely in furtherance of the above purposes, for which nonprofit corporations may be incorporated under the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act, and any of its successors or amendments.
- D. To do any other things incidental to the powers of the Corporation or necessary or desirable to advance the purposes of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IX - LIMITATION

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article VII hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)

(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE X - TAX EXEMPT STATUS

It is intended that the Corporation shall have and continue to have a status that is exempt from federal income taxation as an organization described in 26 U.S.C.A. § 501 (c) (3) and which is other than a private foundation as defined in 26 U.S.C.A. § 509. These articles shall be construed accordingly, and all powers and activities of the corporation shall be limited accordingly. The corporation shall not carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation to such an extent as would result in the loss of exemption under 26 U.S.C.A. § 501 (c) (3). All references in these articles to sections of the Internal Revenue Code shall be considered references to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended, and to the corresponding provisions of any similar law subsequently enacted.

ARTICLES XI - DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE XII - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The manner of election and number of directors will be provided in the Corporation's bylaws. The number, however, shall never be less than one (1).

ARTICLE XIII - OFFICERS

The officers of the Corporation may consist of President, Vice-president, President Elect, Secretary, Treasurer, Chairs, Co-Chairs, and any other officers and assistant officers as may be provided for in the bylaws or by resolution of the board of directors. Each officer shall be elected by majority vote of the directors (and may be removed by majority vote of the board of directors) at such time and manner as may be prescribed by the bylaws or by law.
