ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
In compliance with Chapter 617, F.S., (Not for Profit)

ARTICLE I
Name

The name of the Corporation shall be Bowe's Safe Haven, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation"), a Florida non-stock corporation.

ARTICLE II
Principle Office

Principle street address:

1030 Northwest 26th Ave
Fort Lauderdale, FL 33311

ARTICLE III
Purpose

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended, including, without limitation, the purposes of providing assistance to underprivileged, low income; mistreated, offending, and maladjusted youths and adults by offering mentoring and encouragement, through sponsoring educational programs, professional training, advocacy, and supportive services that help uplift the entire community. The corporation also strives to aid cancer patients and their families that are in need of monetary assistance for necessary treatment, counseling, and mentorship. The corporation will reach out to children, adults, and their families, who suddenly find themselves faced with the lifelong changes that come with living with Cancer by offering assistance to those individuals who have medical, physical, and emotional needs related to this life altering disease. We want to build self-esteem and confidence in all of our participants. We want them to know that there is hope, and that a positive future is possible. Our mission is to support at-risk children, youth, and adults by offering one on one mentoring, vocational training, and basic life functioning skills. Our goal is to create program initiatives that support "at-risk" children, youth, and adults by creating positive structures in their lives that will ultimately help promote civic responsibility in the future. We offer guidance and mentor the development of each participant's mental, physical, emotional, and social well-being. With encouraging lessons of good sportsmanship, personal accountability, and self-esteem, the foundation believes that these are essential qualities for individuals to develop in order to live productive, self-sufficient, happy, and fulfilling lives. Our program will help develop life management, social skills, and literacy for low-income, individuals that are underserved, handicapped, underprivileged, disenfranchised and disadvantaged. The Corporation will offer services that empower each individual with knowledge and resources to achieve greater self-identity, academic excellence, community involvement and balanced living. Our program gives the youth and disadvantaged adults in our community a place to come and learn about basic business and employment principles. Our program will also introduce ideologies and skills that will increase their confidence and intellectual capabilities. The target group will comprise of youth and adults to help to combat literacy prevention, poverty, violence and unemployment prevention. This program will also offer business based teaching, training and technical skills, youth scholarship awards, economic job skills, mentoring, tutoring, economic literacy, violence prevention, computer literacy, and crisis counseling for the youth and the disadvantaged. The work of the Corporation will demonstrate that youth and parents working together are a powerful force for improving their communities and making real change. We understand that there is no more valuable resource in the world than our children and citizens. We are dedicated to providing the opportunities and resources to underprivileged individuals to keep them off the street, promote higher education, develop creativity and provide the tools for people to be afforded with the means to make positive change in their lives. The objective of the program is to improve self-sufficiency measures of good citizenship, personal accountability, and serve as a vessel for participants to utilize and develop skills that will help them grow into dynamic and successful members in society. Our program provides positive structures children, and are designed to have performance indicators and measurable outcomes; with leadership development services in all categories. The Corporation shall not be operated for the primary purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit.
