ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION FOR
THE HUMERAA AND ASAD QAMAR FOUNDATION, INC.
a Florida not-for-profit corporation

The undersigned citizen of the United States, desiring to form a not for profit corporation under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, certifies and acknowledges the following:

ARTICLE I NAME AND ADDRESS

The name of this Foundation shall be: The Humeraa and Asad Qamar Foundation, Inc. hereinafter called "Foundation." The principal office of the Foundation is located at 4730 Southwest 49th Road, Ocala, Florida 34474, and the mailing address is 4730 Southwest 49th Road, Ocala, Florida 34474.

ARTICLE II
CORPORATE EXISTENCE

The Foundation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE III
CORPORATE PURPOSES

The Foundation shall be a nonprofit corporation formed and operated within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, which purposes shall include:

- To serve humanity in the fields of health care, food deprivation, and education. The Foundation will, through charitable donations, work to provide these three basic human needs to the people of this world regardless of color, creed, ethnicity and religion. This help will be provided for a specific period, in a fashion that will preserve the basic human dignity of the individuals and families, and also prepare the recipients for ongoing sustainability and independent living for a better future;
- To do any and all lawful activities which may be necessary, useful, or desirable for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering, or attaining of the foregoing purposes, either directly or indirectly, and either alone or in conjunction or cooperation with others, whether such others be persons or organizations of any kind or nature, such as corporations, firms, associations, trusts, institutions, foundations, or governmental bureaus, departments or agencies;
- All of the foregoing purposes shall be exercised exclusively for charitable and educational purposes in such a manner that the Foundation will qualify as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law;

- To take and hold, for any of said purposes, funds and property of all kinds, subject only to any limitations or conditions imposed by law or in the instrument under which received; to buy, sell, lease, convey and dispose of any such property and to invest and reinvest any proceeds and other funds, and to deal with and expend the principal and income for any of said purposes; and
- In general, to exercise any and all powers which a corporation not for profit organized under the laws of Florida for the foregoing purposes can be authorized to exercise.

The Foundation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and to which deductible contributions may be made under Sections 170, 2055, or 2522 of the Internal Revenue Code, as applicable. No part of the assets or the net earnings of the Foundation shall inure to the benefit of any officer, director, member, or any other person. No substantial part of the activities of the Foundation shall be dedicated to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise. The Foundation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

During any period that the Foundation may be found to be a private foundation, as defined by Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, the Foundation shall: (1) distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942(a); (2) not engage or be involved in any act of self-dealing, as defined in Section 4941(d), so as to give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4941(a); (3) not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c), so as to give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4943(a); (4) not make any investments which would jeopardize the carrying out of any of its exempt purposes, within the meaning of Section 4944, so as to give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4944(a); and (5) not make any taxable expenditures, as defined in Section 4945(d), so as to give rise to any liability imposed by Section 4945(a). Unless otherwise indicated, as used in this Article III and hereinafter, all section references are to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, including any corresponding provisions of any subsequently enacted federal tax laws.

ARTICLE IV CORPORATE POWERS

The Foundation shall have and exercise all the powers accorded corporations not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida which are not in conflict with the Foundation's exempt provisions as provided in Article III above.
