Article III Purpose The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:
to develop the next generation of scholars, policy experts and commentators on Israel by serving as the "gesher," or bridge, between pro-Israel students and groups on college campuses through the facilitation and production of regular in-person conferences, cross-campus programming and philanthropy that will connect and unite these students and groups to learn from scholars, experts and each other about all aspects of Israeli life and culture, including history, geography, politics, military, security, food, dance and music; and to engage in any other lawful purpose.

The corporation is organized as an educational organization within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now in effect or as may hereafter be amended (the "Code"). In furtherance its purposes, the corporation shall have all the general powers enumerated in Florida Statutes ("F.S.") 617.0302, together with the power to solicit grants and contributions for such purposes. Except as otherwise provided by law, or in any bylaw of the corporation, the business of the corporation shall be managed and all of the powers of the corporation shall be exercised by the Board.

Article IV Duration The duration of existence of the corporation is perpetual.

Article V Manner of The initial directors will be appointed by the undersigned Election incorporator, and thereafter will be elected at an annual meeting of the Board of Directors by an affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors then in office, and each shall continue in office until his successor is elected and qualified, or until his earlier death, resignation or removal.

Article VI Internal Provisions for the regulation of the internal affairs of the Affairs corporation are as follows:

A. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any director or officer of the corporation, or any other private person, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay such individuals or contractors reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the corporation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the educational purposes of the corporation;

B. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office;

C. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not directly or indirectly carry on any activity which would prevent it from obtaining exemption from federal income taxation as a corporation described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or cause it to lose such exempt status; and

D. Upon dissolution or final liquidation of the corporation, the assets of the corporation shall be distributed in accordance with F.S. 617.1406 and all applicable provisions of the Code.

Article VII Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by F.S. 617.0831 and F.S. 617.0850, no officer or director of the corporation shall be personally liable for damages in any proceeding brought by or in the right of the corporation, or in connection with any claim, action, suit or proceeding to which he or she may be or is made a party by reason of being or having been an officer or director of the corporation; provided, however, that such relief from liability shall not apply in any instance where such relief is inconsistent with any provision of the Code applicable to corporations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. The corporation shall indemnify any officer, director, or agent of the corporation to the fullest extent permitted by and in accordance with F.S. 617.0831 and F.S. 617.0850 and the Board of Directors is authorized to purchase insurance for this purpose.

Article VIII Reservation

The corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred upon directors herein are granted subject to this reservation.
