ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
THE BRAD DUNN FOUNDATION, INC.

The undersigned, for the purpose of forming a corporation not for profit pursuant to Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, does hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of the Corporation is THE BRAD DUNN FOUNDATION, INC.

ARTICLE II - ADDRESS AND PLACE OF BUSINESS

The mailing address and street address of the principal place of the principal office of the Company in Florida is:

c/o ETCO Incorporated
3004 62nd Avenue East
Bradenton, FL 34203

ARTICLE III - DURATION

Corporate existence shall commence upon filing these Articles of Incorporation by the Secretary of State, and the duration of the Corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE IV - PURPOSE

The purpose for which this Corporation will be formed is exclusively for the educational, charitable, and other similar non-profitable purposes as contemplated by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

The Corporation shall take all actions necessary in furtherance of these purposes, and engaging in activities which are necessary, suitable or convenient for the accomplishment of those purposes.

The Corporation may also engage in such charitable and educational activities, within the meaning of Code Section 501(c)(3), or corresponding Section of any future federal tax code, generally related to or in furtherance of the above purposes.

ARTICLE V - POWERS

The Corporation shall have all of the common law and statutory powers of a corporation not for profit pursuant to the laws of the State of Florida that are not in conflict with the terms of these Articles. The Corporation shall not issue shares of stock. The Corporation is constituted so as to potentially attract support from contributions from persons in the community in which it operates and has not been formed for pecuniary profit or financial gain. The Corporation shall not distribute any part of its income to its members, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation may pay compensation in a reasonable amount to its members, directors, officers and employees for services rendered in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 4 hereof.

No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a Corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding Section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a Corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Code Section 170(c)(2), or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

In general, and subject to the limitations herein set forth, to exercise all of the rights and powers which are now or may hereafter be conferred on corporations not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida or which are necessary or incidental to the powers so conferred, or conducive to the purposes of the corporation, provided always that such powers may be exercised by an organization exempt under Code Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and its regulations, as they now exist or may hereafter be amended, and by an organization contributions to which are deductible under Code Section 170(c)(2) and Regulations.

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed to such organization or organizations as may be selected by the last acting Board of Directors, which shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization under Code Section 501(c)(3), or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all liabilities of the Corporation. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county where the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for the purposes or to the organization or organizations as said court shall determine are organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes.

ARTICLE VI - MEMBERS

The qualification for and manner of admission of members shall be regulated by the Bylaws. The Corporation may have one or more classes of members as may be determined in the Bylaws.
