and enlightenment. To the extent a corporation described in section 501©(3) of the Internal Revenue Code is permitted to do so, the corporation may distribute to other organizations, foreign or domestic, all or part of the funds it collects, but the corporation is not required to remit or distribute any part of its funds to any other organization.

The corporation will recommend or refer to such other services as needed.

The corporation shall not, as a substantial part of its activities, carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation; nor shall it participate or intervene (by publication or distribution of any statements or otherwise) on any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

VIII Term

This corporation shall have perpetual existence unless terminated sooner in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida

IX By-Laws

The Board of Directors of this corporation may provide such By-Laws for the conduct of the business of the corporation and the carrying out of its purpose as such Directors may deem necessary from time to time. Upon notice properly given, the Bylaws may be amended, altered or rescinded by a majority vote of the Directors present at any regular or special meeting called for that purpose, subject to any limitations set forth in the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act concerning corporate action that must be authorized or approved by members of the corporation.

X Amendment of Articles

An amendment to these Articles of Incorporation may be proposed by any director of the corporation, but such amendment may be adopted only after receiving an affirmative vote of the majority of the board.

XI Dedication and Distribution of Assets

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, director or officer of the corporation or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes) and no member, Director or Officer of the corporation or any private
