Adding:

Article VI

Conflict of Interest. Directors shall generally be prohibited from competing for contracts to provide goods or services to the Corporation. However, the Board of Directors may authorize a transaction in which a director has an interest if: (i) the transaction is deemed by the Board to be necessary to advance the purpose of and in the best interests of the Corporation; (ii) the action to be taken by the Board is consistent with the Statement of Activities as filed with the Internal Revenue Service; and (iii) the transaction is authorized and approved by a majority vote of directors who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction.

Adding:

Article VII

Dissolution. No member, director, officer, or employee of, or member of a committee of, or person connected with the Corporation, or any other private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets upon the dissolution of the Corporation. All members of the Corporation shall be deemed to have expressly consented and agreed that upon such dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, the assets of the Corporation, after all debts have been satisfied, then remaining in the hands of the Board of Directors, shall be distributed, transferred, conveyed, delivered, and paid over, in such amounts as the Board of Directors may determine or as may be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction upon application of the Board of Directors, exclusively to those organizations awarded grants in the most recent prior grant allocations made by the Corporation.

The date of each amendment(s) adoption: December 5, 2013, if other than the date this document was signed.

Effective date if applicable: December 5, 2013
