ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is: to provide charitable and educational services to low income and immigrant community members. Our main goal is provide access to justice and other services through directories, resource materials, websites and links to government institutions, legal aid clinics, law school clinics, pro bono and low cost attorneys and firms.

Many immigrant families struggle with language, education and understanding of how institutions, government agencies and in particular how the judicial branch operates.

We hope to provide these individuals with access to resources that can help them become productive members of society. Assets received and held by the corporation subject to limitations permitting their use only for charitable, religious, eleemosynary, benevolent, educational, or similar purposes, but not held upon a condition requiring return, transfer, conveyance by reason of the dissolution, be transferred or conveyed to one or more domestic or foreign corporations, trusts, societies, or organizations engaged in activities substantially similar to those of the dissolving corporation, as provided in the plan of distribution of assets.
