ARTICLE III

PURPOSE

3.01 Purpose

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is to fund emergency hotel stays and other emergency resources for adult female victims of domestic abuse within a 24-hour period of time.

The Hunker Down INNitiative provides confidential funding for hotel stays and other necessities, such as food, water, taxi services and references to participants who are attempting to leave their abusive relationships and/or homes. Our assistance will be within a 24-hour time period so that the victim can have a safe place to stay while she decides where her long-term, safe residence will be.

To maximize our impact on current efforts, we may seek to collaborate with other non-profit organizations, which fall under the 501(c)(3) section of the internal revenue code and are operated exclusively for educational and charitable purposes.

If partnerships with for-profit organizations are appropriate, Hunker Down reserves the right to partner with any such entity with the understanding that no financial support or donation will be provided to such an organization.

At times, per the discretion of the board of directors, we may provide internships or volunteer opportunities, which will provide opportunities for involvement in said activities and programs in order to have a greater impact for change.

ARTICLE IV

MANNER OF ELECTION

4.01 Manner of Election

The election of director(s) will be decided via board vote during quarterly meetings. A background check will be performed and references contacted as a standard of due diligence.

7.02 Date of Incorporation

This organization's date of incorporation shall be formally established as January 2, 2014. Because of this, primary annual records shall be due upon January 1st of 2015 and no tax preparation will be required for the tax year of 2013.

ARTICLE VIII

NON-PROFIT NATURE

8.01 Non-profit Nature

The Hunker Down INNitiative is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. No part of the net earnings of Hunker Down INNitiative shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by any organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The Hunker Down INNitiative is not organized and shall not be operated for the private gain of any person. The property of the corporation is irrevocably dedicated to its educational and charitable purposes. No part of the assets, receipts, or net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to any individual. The corporation may, however, pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, and make other payments and distributions consistent with these Articles.

8.02 Personal Liability

No officer or director of this corporation shall be personally liable for the debts or obligations of The Hunker Down INNitiative of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property or assets of the officers or directors be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of this corporation.

8.03 Dissolution

Upon termination or dissolution of the Hunker Down INNitiative, any assets lawfully available for distribution shall be distributed to one (1) or more qualifying organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or described in any corresponding provision of any successor statute) which organization or organizations have a charitable purpose which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to the terminating or dissolving corporation.

The organization to receive the assets of the Hunker Down INNitiative hereunder shall be selected by the discretion of a majority of the managing body of the Hunker Down INNitiative and if its members cannot so agree, then the recipient organization shall be selected pursuant to a verified petition in equity filed in a court of proper jurisdiction against the Hunker Down INNitiative by one (1) or more of its managing body which verified petition shall contain such statements as reasonably indicate the applicability of this section. The court upon a finding that this section is applicable shall select the qualifying organization or organizations to receive the assets to be distributed, giving preference if practicable to organizations located within the State of Florida.

In the event that the court shall find that this section is applicable but that there is no qualifying organization known to it which has a charitable purpose, which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to this corporation, then the court shall direct the distribution of its assets lawfully available for distribution to the Treasurer of the State of Florida to be added to the general fund.

8.04 Prohibited Distributions

No part of the net earnings, or properties of this corporation, on dissolution or otherwise, shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers or other private person or individual, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions.

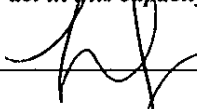

8.05 Restricted Activities

No substantial part of the corporation's activities shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene (including the publishing or distribution of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

8.06 Prohibited Activities

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (I) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax as an organization described by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (II) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity.
