Limitations on the Corporation's Powers

At all times, and notwithstanding merger, consolidation, reorganization, termination, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, or any other provisions hereof:

A. The Corporation shall not possess or exercise any power or authority that would pose a substantial risk of preventing it at any time from qualifying and continuing to qualify as a corporation described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ("Code"), contributions to which are deductible for federal income tax purposes, nor shall the Corporation engage directly or indirectly in any activity that would pose a substantial risk of causing the loss of such qualification under section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

B. At no time shall the Corporation engage in any activities that are unlawful under the law of the United States, the State of Florida, or any other jurisdiction where its activities are carried out.

C. No part of the assets or net earnings of the Corporation shall ever be used, nor shall the Corporation ever be organized or operated, for the purposes that are not exclusively charitable or educational within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

D. The Corporation shall never be operated for the primary purpose of carrying on trade or business for profit.

E. The Corporation shall not carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation to an extent that would disqualify it for tax exemption under section 501(c)(3) of the Code by reason of attempting to influence legislation. Nor shall the Corporation, directly or indirectly, participate in or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

F. No solicitation of contribution to the Corporation shall be made, and no gift, bequest, or devise to the Corporation shall be accepted, upon any condition or limitation that would pose a substantial risk of causing the Corporation to lose its federal income tax exemption.

G. Pursuant to the prohibition contained in section 501(c)(3) of the Code, no part of the net earnings, current or accumulated, of the Corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any private individual.

H. All references contained in these Articles to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or to the "Code," shall be deemed to refer to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and the Regulations established pursuant thereto, as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended. Any reference contained in these Articles to a specific section or chapter of the Code shall be deemed to refer to such section or chapter and the Regulations established thereto as they may now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, and to any corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Service laws and any Regulations established pursuant thereto.

ARTICLE NINE

Members

The corporation will have no members.

ARTICLE TEN

Disposition of the Corporation's Assets on Dissolution

In keeping with the charitable purposes to which the Corporation's property is irrevocably dedicated, upon winding up and dissolution of the corporation, and after payment or after provision is made for its debts and obligations, the corporation's remaining assets shall be distributed to one or more not-for-profit funds, foundations, trusts or corporations which are organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes, and which are qualified as tax exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding provisions of a future United States Internal Revenue law.

ARTICLE ELEVEN

Amendment of the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation

Notwithstanding any provision of the law permitting their amendment upon the affirmative act of less than all of the Corporation's incumbent directors, the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation may be amended only upon the unanimous vote of all the Directors of the Corporation then incumbent, provided that they not alter the purposes of the corporation.

ARTICLE TWELVE

Duration of the Corporation

The period of the Corporation's duration is perpetual.
