Attachment (1)

Article III - Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Specifically, to establish and fund a Christian centered school, K-12, to ensure all students, regardless of demography, graduate high school prepared to enter college or the workforce. Our Core values and Motto are as follows:

Core Values

Our program is guided by the following values:

- The belief that excellence is achievable when students are challenged to meet high academic standards.
- The belief that students are encouraged through engaging curricula and creative teaching strategies.
- The belief that the education of our students is a shared responsibility of the school, family, and community.
- The belief that striving to improve is a continuous obligation

Motto

Our goal is to become impactful global citizens by being:

- Spiritually grounded
- Well disciplined
- Well read
- Well travelled &
- Well spoken

Article VIII Additional Provisions

- A. The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable, educational or religious purposes. Upon the dissolution or winding up of the corporation, its assets remaining after payment or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this corporation shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation, or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational or religious purposes and which has established its taxexempt status under section 501(c) (3) of the internal revenue code.
- B. No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided by Section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue code), and this corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.
- C. No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that this corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these articles.

- D. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not carry on any other activities nor permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c( (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or (2) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under section 170© (2) of the Internal Revenue code
- E. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
