ARTICLE VIII: TAX EXEMPT STATUS AND DISSOLUTION

The Corporation shall seek exemptions from taxation and comply with all requisite rules and regulations to maintain such status. Specifically:

- A. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to its officers or other private persons except that the Corporation may make payments and distributions in the furtherance of the purposes set forth in Articles hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future tax code, or (b) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
- B. Upon dissolution or other termination of the Corporation, no part of the property of the Corporation nor any of the proceeds thereof shall be distributed to or inure to the benefit of, any of the members, directors, trustees or officers of the Corporation, but all such property and proceeds shall, subject to the discharge of valid obligations of the Corporation and to applicable provisions of law, be distrusted as directed by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, provided that in the event of the dissolution, reorganization, consolidation, merger, liquidation or termination, the assets of the Corporation may only be distributed to a nonprofit association, corporation, trust, community chest, fund or foundation of similar purpose and qualified for the same exemptions under Internal Revenue Code, Section 501 (c) (3), or any successor provision, as is the Corporation.
