Article VI – EXEMPT PURPOSES AND LIMITED PROVISIONS

6.1: 501(c)(3) Election. The directors/officers of this corporation may elect and if elected shall continue such election to be a 501(c)(3) Corporation as permitted within the meaning under Chapter 17.0202 of the Florida Statutes, and Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), unless the directors/officers of the corporation unanimously agree otherwise in writing.

6.2: Dissolution of Assets. After this corporation has elected to be a 501(c)(3), none of the directors of this corporation without the written consent of all the directors of this corporation shall take any action, or make any transfer or other disposition of the assets of the corporation. Upon dissolution of the corporation, the remaining assets must be used exclusively for exempt purposes, such as charitable and educational purposes.

6.3: Other Activities. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this corporation shall not carry on any other activities: not permitted to be carried on (a) by an corporation exempt from Federal income tax under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by an corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

6.4: Winding Up and Dissolution. Upon the winding up and dissolution of this corporation, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and the obligations of the corporation, the remaining assets shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable or educational purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
