Section 2.2 Limitations on Actions.

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Section 2.1 of this Article. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be used for attempting to influence governmental actions, except as specifically authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation relative to governmental actions directly affecting the purposes or operations of the Corporation, nor for participation or intervention in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted:

- a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States tax laws); or
- b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States tax laws).

In addition:

- 1) The Corporation will distribute its income for each tax year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States tax laws).
- 2) The Corporation will not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States tax laws).
- 3) The Corporation will not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States tax laws).
- 4) The Corporation will not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States tax laws).
- 5) The Corporation will not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States tax laws).

Section 2.3 Dissolution.

- 1) Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for payment of all the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation to such organization which, at such time, is or are qualified as an exempt organization under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States tax laws) as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the District Court of the Seventh Judicial District, exclusively for the purpose of the Corporation or to such organization or organizations which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes as the Court shall determine.

ARTICLE III

Powers

Subject to the restrictions and limitations set forth in Article II, the Corporation shall have the powers and authorities as are now or may hereafter be granted to corporations not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida, and which are necessary and proper to carry out and perform any and all of the purposes for which the Corporation is organized.
