ARTICLE III

The specific purpose for which the corporation is organized:

The purpose of the Animal Health and Wellness Club is to provide free wellness exams to the pets of the University of Florida College of Veterinary Medicine student, faculty, and staff. Veterinary students gain experience doing physical exams, heartworm tests, and communicating with pet owners. Zoetis, an animal health company, donates heartworm prevention to the University of Florida College of Veterinary Medicine. With permission of the university, this heartworm prevention is distributed by the Animal Health and Wellness club to students, faculty, and staff of the veterinary school. Every decision and all prescription dosing is overseen by a licensed veterinarian. Donations received are distributed to the following funds: student scholarships (35%), Operation Catnip (30%), Pet Are Wonderful Support (15%), and the Student Chapter of the American Veterinary Medical Association (10%).
