ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
NEW BIRTH MIRACLE REVIVAL
BREAKTHROUGH MINISTRIES, INC.

FILED
14 APR 28 PM 3: 00
SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

The under signed, for the purpose of forming a corporation under the laws of the State of Florida, hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation. New Birth Miracle Revival Breakthrough Ministries, Inc. (the "Corporation"), hereby adopts the following Articles of Incorporation for such Corporation pursuant to the provision of the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act (the "Act").

ARTICLE I: NAME

The name of this corporation shall be New Birth Miracle Revival Breakthrough Ministries, Inc.

ARTICLE II: NONPROFIT CORPORATION

The Corporation is a nonprofit corporation organized under the Act and shall have all the powers, duties, authorizations, and responsibilities as provided therein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation shall neither have nor exercise any power, nor engage directly or indirectly in any activity that would invalidate its status as an organization exempt from federal income tax and described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provision or provisions of any subsequent United States Internal Revenue law or laws (the "Internal Revenue Code of 1986").

ARTICLE III: DURATION OF BUSINESS

The term of existence shall be perpetual. The President shall be the Chief Apostle and Chief Executive Officer of New Birth Miracle Revival Breakthrough Ministries, and The President position shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE IV: PURPOSE AND LIMITATIONS

The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for religious, charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. More particularly, the purposes of the corporation are:

- (a) To promote the God or our religious belief in a God, and or who we believe is God, and or religion by any appropriate form of expression concerning that gospel of the kingdom, new birth, apocalypse, within any available medium, and in any location, through the Corporation's combined or separate formation, of a church, ministry, charity, school or eleemosynary institution, without limitation.

- (b) To ordain, employ and discharge ordained ministers of the Gospel, and other, To administer sacerdotal religious ordinances, rites to conduct and carry on divine services at the place of worship of the Corporation, and elsewhere.
- (c) To collect and disburse any and all necessary funds for the maintenance of said Corporation and the accomplishment of its purpose within the State of Florida and elsewhere.
- (d) To make disburse to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3), of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.
- (e) This Corporation is also organized to promote, encourage, and foster any other similar religious, charitable and educational activities; to accept, hold, invest, reinvest and administer any gifts, legacies, bequests, devises, funds and property of any sort or nature, and to use, expend, or donate the income of principal thereof for, and to devote the same to, the foregoing purposes of the Corporation, and to do any and all lawful acts and things which may be necessary, useful, suitable, or proper for furtherance of accomplishment of the purposes of this Corporation. Provided, however, no act may be performed which would violate Section 501(c)(3), of the Internal Revenue Code, as it now exists or as it may hereafter be amended.

4.02 Limitations. In order to carry out the above-stated purposes, the Corporation shall have all those powers set forth in the Act, as it now exists, or as it may hereafter be amended. The powers of the Corporation to promote the purposes set out above are limited and restricted in the following manner:

(a) No part of the new earnings of the Corporation shall inappropriately benefit or be distributable to its incorporators, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to make payments and distributions (including reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the Corporation) in furtherance of its purposes as set forth in these Articles. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by (i) a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3), of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws, or; (ii) a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2), of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding, provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

(b) In the event this Corporation is any on year a "private foundation" as defined by Section 509(a), of the Internal Revenue Code 1986, as amended, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws, it shall be required to distribute its income for such taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to subject the foundation to taxation under Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws; and further shall be prohibited from: (i) any act of "self-dealing" as defined in Section 4942(d), of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws; (ii) retaining any "excess business holdings" as defined by Section 4942(b), of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws; or (iii) making any 4944 of the Internal Revenue code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding provision of any subsequent federal tax laws; or (iv) making a taxable expenditure as defined in Section 4945(d), of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

© The Corporation shall not accept any gift or grant if the gift or grant contains major conditions which would restrict or violate any of the Corporation's religious, charitable or education purposes, or if the gift or grant would require serving a private as opposed to public interest.

(d) Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Corporation shall, after paying or making provision for payment of all the liabilities of the Corporation, distribute all of the liabilities Of the corporation to any organization designated by the Board of Directors of the Corporation which is of like faith and order and is exempt from taxes under Internal Revenue Code 501(c)(3), (or the corresponding provision of any future tax law of the United States).

ARTICLE V: POWERS

Except as otherwise provided in these Articles, the Corporation shall have all of the powers provided in the Act. Moreover, the Corporation shall have all implied powers necessary and proper to carry out its express powers.

The Presiding Senior Pastor, Bishop, and General Board will have the authority to suspend any officer, elected or appointed, including, but not limited to, Bishops, Supervisors, Pastors, Elders, Ministers, Missionaries, Evangelists or Deacons pending the outcome of any allegations of misconduct which has the potential to substantially impact New Birth Miracle Revival Breakthrough Ministries financially, morally and spiritually. The Presiding Senior Pastor, Bishop, with the approval of the General Board, shall have authority to delegate this authority to the Jurisdictional Bishop where the misconduct occurred.

New Birth Miracle Revival Breakthrough Ministries recognizes that every human being is valuable in the sight of God, and we seek to minister to all men and women in the spirit of Jesus Christ. Our most important foundational belief is that we live in harmony with the principles of God's Word.

We highly esteem the marriage covenant. This gift from God has been given to us along with the clear teaching in Sacred Scripture and we affirm that this gift, which pertains to our lives' most intimate relationships, is to be expressed through a union that is life-long, monogamous and gender specific. The importance of gender in defining the marriage covenant is affirmed throughout the Bible, including the specific teaching of Jesus Christ Himself (Saint Matthew 19:4-6). Our public teaching and practice is based on what the Bible teaches concerning homosexuality, and (Lesbianism – Romans 1:19-26-32) Christian marriage is to be between one man and one woman. We believe that this is God's design for humanity established at creation.

The act of homosexuality, Lesbianism is a sin according to God's Word. God's intent in creation was that male and female would be complimentary, that the privilege of sexual expression would be between male and female only, and this expression would be only in the context of marriage. Both heterosexual and homosexual sexual behavior outside of marriage violates the human spirit and distorts God's intent for our lives – (Mal 2:15). The Holy Scriptures condemn homosexual practices (Genesis 19:4-10; Leviticus 18:22; 20:13; Romans 1:26-28-32; and First Timothy 1:8-10), and we follow this instruction and example of Jesus.

While previous American laws and the world systems are being continually affected by cultural, sociological – voting rights power movement groups and American political voting precedent changes effected by these groups, within the current (3 decades) of this Article filing. We will not compromise or deviate from the standards set by God or our religious belief in a God, and or who we believe is God. Teaching the old and new inherited covenant of the Historical Judeo-Messianic Hebraic Orthodox doctrines. We do not endorse or consecrate homosexuals, Lesbians to the Holy Office of Pastor, Bishop, or condone their ordination into Holy Office as Deacons or Elders (Priests), for to do so is both dishonoring to God and a betrayal of our Faith. The ordination of a practicing homosexual, Lesbian to any church office contradicts the clear mandate of God. Therefore, New Birth Miracle Revival Breakthrough Ministries will NEVER accept or bless same-sex unions of any kind or grant those living such a lifestyle Apostolic Succession into Holy Office.

New Birth Miracle Revival Breakthrough Ministries stands against any form of evil, including prejudice, bigotry and violence. We believe that moral disagreement is not a license for slander or harassment of any contrary group but we cannot affirm same-sex unions as God's will for followers of Jesus Christ. Membership in New Birth Miracle Revival Breakthrough Ministries requires an outgrowth of accepting the Lordship and leadership of Jesus in one's life, and the belief in the Godly lifestyle he teaches.

New Birth Miracle Revival Breakthrough Ministries ITS' CURRENT AND OR ANY SUCCESSOR board of directors reserve all State and Federal constitutional rights and privileges as to our personal U.S. citizenship as well as business charter rights as an incorporated business.

CODE OF ETHICS:

Recognizing the vital and increasingly important role played by radio, television, Internet and other emerging technologies of mass communications, and the desire of the New Birth Miracle Revival Breakthrough "to foster and encourage excellence in Christian ministry, broadcasting by establishing and maintaining high standards with respect to content, method of presentation, speakers' qualifications and ethical practices..." the New Birth Miracle Revival Breakthrough Ministries also recognizes that the general public looks to us to bring conformity to ethical behavior into our ministry, broadcasting, programming, business, management, financial, and relational responsibilities. Recognizing the Bible as the standard by which we must evaluate all beliefs, instruction, policies and practices, especially that of New Birth Miracle Revival Breakthrough Ministries. New Birth Miracle Revival Breakthrough Ministries has adopted and each of its members must accept and subscribed before becoming a member the following Code of Ethics and the Statement of Faith:

1. I will conduct my personal life, corporate ministry, and business affairs in a way that will not bring shame or reproach to the name of the Lord or New Birth Miracle Revival Breakthrough Ministries or its members. Rather, I will speak to bring glory and pleasure to our Lord and encourage others to do likewise. (I Peter 1:14-16; 2:12; 4:11)
2. I will speak the truth in love. (Ephesians 4:1-16)
3. I will recognize and respect what the Lord is doing through other individuals and organizations while refraining from unnecessary criticism of them. (I Peter 3:8,9)
4. I will not use the media to knowingly speak falsely against anyone. (Exodus 20:16)
5. When I believe a fellow member has sinned against me or the Lord, or has violated this Code of Ethics, I will follow the principles and procedures set forth in God's Word and in Article I of the Bylaws. (Matthew 18:15-17)
6. I will honor my obligations with the best of my abilities and circumstances, to my vendors, neighbors, community and government. (Romans 3:7-8)
7. In matters of dispute with other Christians, to the extent that it is in my power to do so, I will attempt to submit my grievances to Christian arbitration for resolution rather than to the courts of the land (I Corinthians 6:1-8). Nothing herein shall be construed so as to prohibit a member from expressing his genuine concern to another brother in a spirit of love and in accordance with Matthew 18:15-17.
8. I will refrain from any sexual conduct or life-style, such as homosexuality, lesbianism or adultery, which is inconsistent with Scripture, or any promotion of the same. (Romans 1:24-32; Genesis 19; Leviticus 18:22; Exodus 20:14; John 8:1-11)

STATEMENT OF FAITH:

1. We believe the Bible to be inspired, the only infallible, authoritative Word of God.
2. We believe that there is one God, eternally existent in three Persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
3. We believe in the deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, in His miracles, in His vicarious and atoning death through His shed blood, in His bodily resurrection, in His ascension to the right hand of the Father, and in His personal return in power and glory.
4. We believe that for the salvation of lost and sinful man regeneration by the Holy Spirit is absolutely essential, and is administered solely by the grace of God through our faith in Jesus Christ.
5. We believe in the present ministry of the Holy Spirit, by whose indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a godly life.

6. We believe in the resurrection of both the saved and the lost, they that are saved unto the resurrection of life and they that are lost unto the resurrection of damnation.
7. We believe in the spiritual unity of believers in our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Corporation shall indemnify a director or officer of the Corporation who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director or officer was a party because the director or officer was a party because the director or officer is or was a director or officer of the Corporation against reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by the director or officer in connection with the proceeding. The Corporation may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation against liability if authorized in the specific case after determination, in the manner required by the board of directors, that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent, as the case may be, is permissible in the circumstances because the director, officer, employee or agent has met the standard of conduct set forth by the board of directors, officers, employees and agents of the Corporation shall apply when such persons are serving at the Corporation's request while a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation as the case may be, as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, whether or not for profit, as well as in their official capacity with the Corporation. The Corporation also may pay for or reimburse the reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding. The Corporation also may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual arising from the individual's status as a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation, whether or not the Corporation would have power to indemnify the individual against the same liability under the law: All references in these Articles of Incorporation are deemed to include any amendment or successor thereto. Nothing contained in these Articles of Incorporation shall limit or preclude the exercise of any right relating to indemnification or advance of attorney fees and expenses to any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation or the ability of the Corporation otherwise to indemnify or advance expenses to any such person by contract or in any other manner. If any word, clause or sentence of the foregoing provisions regarding indemnification or advancement of the attorney fees or expenses shall be held invalid as contrary to law or public policy, it shall be severable and the provisions remaining shall not be otherwise affected. All references in these Articles of Incorporation to "director", "officer", "employee", and "agent" shall include the heirs, estates, administrators, executors, and personal representatives of such persons.

SECTION 1. INSURANCE. The Ministry will purchase and maintain liability insurance on behalf of any and all persons who are or were a director, officer, leader, employee, committee member or volunteer of the Ministry (while serving in their capacity as such). Such insurance will be purchased for the purpose of protecting such persons from covered loss resulting in liability asserted against the above individuals in connection with their activities on behalf of the Ministry.

SECTION 2. INDEMNIFICATION REQUESTS. Should any director, officer, leader, employee, committee member or volunteer of the Ministry incur any liability as a result of their affiliation with or service to the Ministry that is not covered by the Ministry's insurance policy, and should such liability result in any out-of-pocket cost to such individual, then such individual may request indemnification from the Ministry. The granting of full or partial indemnification shall be at the discretion of the governing board of the Ministry as set forth in Section 3 herein.

SECTION 3. INDEMNIFICATION DECISIONS. In relation to any indemnification request that is made pursuant to Section 2 herein, if such request is made by an individual who is not currently serving on the governing board of the Ministry, then the indemnification decision (whether to indemnify the requesting individual, and the dollar amount of such indemnification), will be made by the governing board. Such decision of the governing board will be final. If the indemnification request is being made by a person who is currently serving on the governing board, then the indemnification decision (whether to indemnify the requesting party, and the dollar amount of such indemnification), will be made by the remaining disinterested members of the governing board. A decision on the indemnification request by a majority of disinterested members of the Board of Directors will be final.

COVENANT NOT TO SUE. The Corporation agrees that it will never institute any action or suit at law or in equity against any director or officer of the Corporation, nor institute, prosecute, or in any way aid in the institution or prosecution of any claim, demand, action, or cause of action for damages, costs, loss of services, expenses, or compensation for or on account of any damage, loss or injury to person or property, or both, whether developed or undeveloped, resulting or to result, known or unknown, past, present, or future, arising out of a director or officer of the Corporation's service to the Corporation.

ARTICLE XIII: AMENDMENT OR ACTION BY WRITTEN CONSENT

This corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained herein in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by law, and all rights conferred herein are granted subject to reservation.

Action may be taken by use of signed written consents by the number of members, directors, or committee members whose vote would be necessary to take action at a meeting at which all such persons entitled to vote were present and voted present and voted, representing a quorum. each written consent must bear the date of signature of each person signing it. A consent signed by less than all of the members, directors, or committee members is not effective to take the intended action unless consents, signed by the required number of persons, are delivered to the Corporation's registered office, registered agent principal place of business, transfer agent, registrar, exchange agent, or an officer or agent having custody of books in which the relevant proceeding are recorded. If the delivery is made to Corporation's principal place of business address(s), the consent must be addressed to the president or principal executive officer.

The Corporation will give prompt notice of the action taken to persons who do not sign consents. If the action taken requires documents to be filed with the Secretary of State, the filed documents will indicate that the written consent procedures have been properly followed.

A telegram, telex, cablegram, or similar transmission by a member, director or committee member, or photographic, facsimile, or similar reproduction of a signed writing is to be regarded as being signed by the member, director, or committee member.

in order to be considered for tax-exempt status by the IRS an organization must fill out and submit IRS Form 1023 and 1024. However, note what the IRS says regarding churches and church ministries, in Publication 557:

Some organizations are not required to file Form 1023. These include: Churches, interchurch organizations of local units of a church, conventions or associations of churches, or integrated auxiliaries of a church, such as a men's or women's organization, religious school, mission society, or youth group. These organizations are exempt automatically if they meet the requirements of section 501(c)(3).

Churches Are "Automatically Tax-Exempt"

According to IRS Code § 508(c)(1)(A):

Special rules with respect to section 501(c)(3) organizations.

(a) New organizations must notify secretary that they are applying for recognition of section 501(c)(3) status.

(c) Exceptions.

(1) Mandatory exceptions. Subsections (a) and (b) shall not apply to—

(A) churches, their integrated auxiliaries, and conventions or associations of churches.

Section 508(c)(1)(A) states that “churches, their integrated auxiliaries, and conventions or associations of churches” are a mandatory exception to section 501(c)(3), they are already tax exempt without notifying or applying to the government under section 501(c)(3). Churches receive the same tax exempt status and benefits as a 501(c)(3) organization

This is referred to as the “mandatory exception” rule. Thus, we see from the IRS’ own publications, and the tax code, that it is completely unnecessary for any church to apply for tax-exempt status. In the IRS’ own words a church “is automatically tax-exempt.”

Churches Are “Automatically Tax-Deductible”

And what about tax-deductibility? Doesn’t a church still need to become a 501c3 so that contributions to it can be taken as a tax deduction? The answer is no! According to IRS Publication 526:

Organizations That Qualify To Receive Deductible Contributions You can deduct your contributions only if you make them to a qualified organization. To become a qualified organization, most organizations other than churches and governments, as described below, must apply to the IRS.

In the IRS’ own words a church “is automatically tax-deductible.”

In IRS Publication 526, Charitable Contributions, the IRS once again states that churches are qualified organizations and do not need to apply to the IRS: “You can deduct your contributions only if you make them to a qualified organization. To become a qualified organization, most organizations other than churches and governments, as described below, must apply to the IRS.”

a religious organization may properly be characterized as a church, the Service considers whether the organization has the following characteristics: (a) a distinct legal existence, (b) a recognized creed and form of worship, (c) a definite and distinct ecclesiastical government, (d) a formal code of doctrine and discipline, (e) a distinct religious history, (f) a membership not associated with any other church or denomination, (g) an organization of ordained ministers, (h) ordained ministers selected after completing prescribed studies, (i) a literature of its own, (j) established places of worship, (k) regular congregations, (l) regular religious services, (m) Sunday schools for religious instruction of the young, (n) schools for the preparation of its ministers, and (o) any other facts and circumstances that may bear upon the organization's claim for church status. See IRM 7(10)69, Exempt Organizations Examination Guidelines Handbook, text 321.3(3).

The IRS, which apparently is unconstrained by the First Amendment, has nonetheless ventured where angels fear to tread, and has established criteria which, in its view, define a church as follows:

1. A distinct legal existence
2. A recognized creed and form of worship
3. A definite and distinct ecclesiastical government
4. A formal code of doctrine and discipline
5. A distinct religious history
6. A membership not associated with any other church or denomination
7. An organization of ordained ministers
8. Ordained ministers selected after completing prescribed studies
9. A literature of its own
10. Established places of worship
11. Regular congregations
12. Regular religious services
13. Sunday schools for religious instruction of the young
14. Schools for the preparation of its ministers.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, as the incorporator of the above named corporation, does hereby subscribe, acknowledge and file in the office of the Secretary of State for the State of Florida this 19th day of April 2014.
