ARTICLE III. Purpose

The specific purpose for which this corporation is organized is to assist with the establishment, development and oversight of educational opportunities for K-12 student populations which include but not limited to public charter schools as authorized by a local school board and educational outreach programs authorized by state, federal or other entities.

This corporation shall operate as a not-for profit organization exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the internal revenue code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE IV. Regulation of Affairs

Provisions for the regulation of the internal affairs of the Corporation, including provisions for distribution of assets on dissolution are as follows:

If this corporation is to dissolve:

A. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to any director or officer of the corporation or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth herein.

B. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

C. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, directly or indirectly carry on any activity which would prevent it from obtaining exemption from Federal income taxation as a corporation described in section 501(c)(3) of the code, or cause it to lose such exempt status, or carry on any activity not permitted to be carried on by a corporation or the corresponding section of any future tax code.

D. After paying or making provisions for the payment of all the legal liabilities of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
