ARTICLE 3
PURPOSE AND POWERS

The purpose for which the Corporation is organized and operated as a church exclusively for religious, charitable and educational purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 (C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Such purposes shall include, but not limited to, the following:

- a. Establishing and maintaining a Ministry Center where the Good News of the Gospel of Jesus Christ is announced and people's physical, mental, and spiritual needs are met;
 - b. To operate a Christian-based Substance Abuse and Drug Rehab Residential Facility for Men; To establish Christian Ministries and Outreaches, such as a consultant and counseling service;
 - c. To assist in the training and development of other ministries;
 - d. To produce and distribute educational materials;
 - e. To conduct educational training and motivational seminars;
 - f. To operate Christian Enrichment and Retreat Centers
 - g. To provide Communication Outreaches through television, radio, printed page, and other means as the ministry deems necessary;
 - h. To operate other branches of ministry as it may be deemed necessary, including establishing or assisting in establishing other Christian ministries, outreaches and missionary branches throughout the United States, Canada, and the World.
 - i. To partner with pastors, community leaders and local ministries in the United States, Canada and the World to coordinate evangelistic witnessing and discipleship campaigns.
2. As a means of accomplishing the above purposes and methods, the Corporation shall have the following powers:

- a. To receive and accept gifts of money and property and to hold the same for any of the purposes of the Corporation and its work.
- b. To raise and assist in raising funds for the purposes herein set forth, including the issuance of bonds or other instruments of credit.
- c. To acquire, own, lease, mortgage, and dispose of property both real and personal.
- d. To conduct and carry on charitable, religious and educational services, activities, and instruction through the public media, including electronic broadcasting, AM and FM radio, telecasting, microwave distribution, closed circuit transmission, and cable television.
- e. To accept property and donations in trust for charitable, religious or educational purposes.
- f. To acquire, hold, own, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of shares of the capital stock, bonds, obligations, or other securities of other corporations, domestic or foreign, as investment or otherwise, in carrying out any of the purposes of the Corporation and, while the owner thereof, to exercise all rights, powers, and privileges of ownership, including the power to vote thereon.

ARTICLE 4 MEMBERSHIP

The membership of the church shall be two (2) classes of membership. Members of the church (non-voting) and Board members (voting). All voting rights and management of the church are reserved in the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 5 EXISTENCE

The date when corporate existence shall commence shall be the date of the filing of these Articles of Incorporation in the office of the Secretary of State of Florida, and the Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE 6 NONPROFIT STATUS

Prohibited Distributors. No part of the net earnings, properties of the directors of this corporation, on dissolution or otherwise, shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers or other private person or individual, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 3.

Restricted Activities. No substantial part of the corporation's activities shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene (including the publishing or distribution of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Prohibited Activities. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax as an organization described by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (2) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Dissolution. Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or adequately providing for all the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the Corporation, distribute the remaining assets of the Corporation exclusively for the nonprofit charitable, religious, or educational purposes to such organization or organizations which are tax exempt under section 501 (C) (3) of the Code, as amended, as the Board of Directors in its sole discretion shall determine. The extent of personal liability, if any, for directors, officers, or members for corporate obligations and the methods of enforcement and collection, are as follows: NONE. Further, the Directors and Officers shall be exempt from liability and/or indemnified from costs and judgments to the full extent permitted by Florida law. In the event the (Florida) law is subsequently amended to authorize the further elimination or limitation of the liability of Directors or Officers of nonprofit corporations, then the liability of Directors and Officers of the corporation in addition to the limitation on personal liability provided under this Article, shall be limited to the fullest extent permitted by such later amended Florida law.

ARTICLE 7 MANNER OF ELECTION

The manner in which the Directors of the Corporation are elected and appointed shall be governed by the provisions of the Bylaws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE 8 OFFICERS

The officers of the Corporation shall be a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as may be provided by the Bylaws adopted by the Corporation. Officers shall be elected and appointed by the Board of Directors in the manner set forth in the Bylaws adopted for the Corporation.

ARTICLE 9 DIRECTORS

The business affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by the President and/or Vice President, in consultation with the Board of Directors. The Corporation shall never have less than three (3) members of the Board of Directors. However, the number of directors may be increased from time to time as set forth in the Bylaws adopted for the Corporation. A director may be removed as outlined in the Bylaws.

The first Board of Directors, consisting of those persons (but not less than three (3)) who shall serve until their successors are duly elected and qualified, shall be appointed by the incorporator(s) pursuant to Section 617.0205, Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE 10 BYLAWS

The Board of Directors of the Corporation may provide such Bylaws for the conduct of the Corporation's business and for the carrying out of the Corporation's purpose as the Board of Directors may deem necessary from time to time.

ARTICLE 11
AMENDMENTS

Amendments to these Articles of Incorporation shall be proposed by the resolution of the Board of Directors or by the officers of the Corporation and shall be approved by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum present at a meeting duly called in accordance with Bylaws adopted for the Corporation.
