ARTICLE III

PURPOSE

This not for profit organization is organized exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501©(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1996 or the successor provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law. FRONT-LINE GLOBAL OUTREACH Corporation activities will focus on providing humanitarian aid to those that are in need here in the USA and Central America with strong emphasis in Jacksonville, Florida. The humanitarian aid will include providing food/meals, clothing, medical supplies, job training skills to individuals and families struggling to survive every day. The aid will also be extended to individuals and families who are victims of natural and/or man-made disasters. Additionally, the Organization will recruit young people including, high school students (during summer breaks) to travel with the Organization's staff/teams/groups to various communities where the Organization provides services. The objective is to encourage young people to learn about service to others, think about opportunities and possibilities beyond their immediate communities, develop greater awareness and appreciation of other cultures, and try to understand the interconnectedness of all people throughout North and Central America regardless of race, gender, and/or ethnicity. These activities are exclusively for charitable purposes.

The long-term plan shall be to maintain centers/locations in North and Central America to facilitate quick and easy delivery of the above mentioned humanitarian aids to wherever and whenever they are needed. While the Organization intends to recruit individuals from the communities where it operates, its primary goal is to create employment opportunities for young Americans (particularly those from inner cities and rural communities) who are willing to travel around the world.

This purpose shall be promoted by, but not limited to, solicitations, grant proposal writing, meetings, conferences, workshops, special projects, leadership development, etc. Special focus shall be to continuously identify those areas in our community where help is needed the most for ongoing services.

To the end that the foregoing objectives and purposes and any related religious and charitable purposes may be carried out, performed and accomplished, this corporation shall have the power to engage only in such activities as shall not constitute business unrelated to its religious, benevolent, charitable, literary and educational purposes. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this organization shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501©(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1996 or the successor provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law. Subject to the foregoing limitations, this corporation shall have all of the rights and powers set forth in section 617.0302, Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE VIII

DISTRIBUTION

No part of the net earnings of the nonprofit shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the nonprofit shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause thereof.

No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the nonprofit shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a nonprofit organization exempt from federal income taxes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE IX

DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501©(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.

The date of each amendment(s) adoption: December 15, 2014, if other than the date this document was signed.

Effective date if applicable: Same as Above
(no more than 90 days after amendment file date)
