ARTICLE VI

PURPOSES

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Sections 501(c)(3), 170(c)(2)(B), 2055(a)(2) and 2522(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code (the "Code"), including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(a) of the Code by reason of description in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. The Corporation's purposes shall include, but not be limited to, providing worldwide, charitable relief to poor and underprivileged children; the procurement, provision and global distribution of food, water, shelter, clothing, medical supplies, bibles and other religious and educational materials to persons in need; funding research that identifies the most effective charitable organizations dedicated to addressing and alleviating hunger, thirst, clothing needs, lack of shelter, health care needs, human trafficking and prison issues; soliciting donations and contributions and making grants to charitable organizations with similar missions as the Corporation to support such activities; and the sponsorship and conduct of educational campaigns and programs designed to raise awareness of, and seek solutions to, the conditions the Corporation is committed to addressing and alleviating. To enable the Corporation to carry out such purposes, it shall have the power to do any and all lawful acts and to engage in any and all lawful activities, directly or indirectly, alone or in conjunction with others, that may be necessary, proper, or suitable for the attainment of any of the purposes for which the Corporation is organized.

ARTICLE VII

PROHIBITED TRANSACTIONS

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article VI hereof.

No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office, within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(a) of the Code by reason of description in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or (2) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

ARTICLE VIII
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The initial Board of Directors of the Corporation shall consist of six (6) directors. The number and manner of election of directors of the Corporation shall be specified, from time to time, by the Bylaws without amendment of these Articles of Incorporation; provided, however, that the number of directors shall never be less than three (3). The names and street addresses of the initial directors of this Corporation are:
