ARTICLE -IX

This corporation is organized under a non-stock basis. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this organization shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.

ARTICLE- X

Upon dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c) 3 of the Internal revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the Federal, State or Local government for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas, of the country in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes, or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE- X I

The corporation may amend or repeal any article of these Articles of Incorporation, or revise the same in toto, by a two-thirds vote of its active Directors present at any regular, annual, or special meeting called for that purpose.

ARTICLE XII

Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations, that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE- XIII

No person, firm or corporation shall ever receive any dividends or profits from the undertaking of this corporation; and, upon dissolution of this corporation, all of its assets remaining after payment of all costs and expenses of such dissolution shall be distributed to organizations which have qualified under Section 501 (c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code, or to the Federal Government or to a State or Local government for a public purpose, and none of the assets will be distributed to any Director, officer, or trustee of this corporation
