SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

The name of this corporation shall be may be conducted as

The business of the corporation
The MAD Movement Inc.

ARTICLE II: PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The principal street address is 8878 Larwin Ln. Orlando, FL 32817

ARTICLE III: PURPOSE

The MAD Movement Inc. is a non-profit corporation and shall operate exclusively for motivational, educational, and charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code. The MAD Movement's purpose is to improve the state of Florida through the use of charity and community service. We provide both the youth and adults motivation to become better individuals by hosting free seminars and lectures titled "The MAD Movement Motivation," in churches, schools, hospitals, and other public venues in addition to our social media's. We also organize charitable events and fundraising to provide help for those in need and to give back to the community. The programs which we host include hiring motivational speakers to heighten social awareness of the individual's ability to break bad habits, think positively, accomplish goals, become successful, and impact the people around them in a positive manner. Our programs are designed to encourage our audience to do better for both themselves and others as well while providing them with facts on how crucial it is to do so. The MAD Movement specifically organizes charitable fundraising to assist terminal patients, cancer patients, foster kids, students, the homeless, and those with various disabilities regardless of gender, ethnicity, race, or religion. In order to maximize our impact on our targeted population, we may seek to collaborate with similar non-profit organizations which fall under the 501(c) (3) section of the internal revenue code. At times, per the discretion of the board of directors, we may provide internships or volunteer opportunities which will provide those participants involvement in said activities and programs in order to increase the impact we make as a nonprofit.

ARTICLE IV: NONPROFIT NATURE

4.01 Nonprofit Nature

The MAD Movement Inc. is organized exclusively for motivational, educational, and charitable purposes including, for such purposes, the distribution of funds and goods collected through fundraisers to organizations and individuals that fall in the category of our company's intended targeted population. No part of the net earnings of The MAD Movement Inc. shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by any organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The MAD Movement Inc. is not organized and shall not be operated for the private gain of any person. The property of the corporation is irrevocably dedicated to its motivational, educational, and charitable purposes. No part of the assets, receipts, or net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to any individual. The corporation may, however, pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, and make other payments and distributions consistent with these Articles.

4.02 Personal Liability

No officer or director of this corporation shall be personally liable for the debts or obligations of The MAD Movement Inc. of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property or assets of the officers or directors be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of this corporation.

4.03 Dissolution

Upon termination or dissolution of the organization The MAD Movement Inc., any assets lawfully available for distribution shall be distributed to one or more qualifying organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or described in any corresponding provision of any successor statute) which organization or organizations have a charitable purpose which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to the terminating or dissolving corporation.

The organization to receive the assets of The MAD Movement Inc. hereunder shall be selected by the discretion of a majority of the managing body of The MAD Movement Inc. and if its members cannot so agree, then the recipient organization shall be selected pursuant to a verified petition in equity filed in a court of proper jurisdiction against The MAD Movement Inc. by one or more of its managing body which verified petition shall contain such statements which reasonably indicates the applicability of this section. The court upon a finding that this section is applicable shall select the qualifying organization or organizations to receive the assets to be distributed, giving preference if practicable to organizations located within the State of Florida. In the event that the court shall find that this section is applicable but that there is no qualifying organization known to it which has a charitable purpose, which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to this corporation, then the court shall direct the distribution of its assets lawfully available for distribution to the Treasurer of the State of Florida to be added to the general fund.

4.04 Prohibited Distributions

No part of the net earnings, or properties of this corporation, on dissolution or otherwise, shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers or other private person or individual, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III, Section 3.01.

4.05 Restricted Activities

No substantial part of the corporation's activities shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene (including the publishing or distribution of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

4.06 Prohibited Activities

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax as an organization described by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
