The purpose for which the corporation is organized is:

Exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. In Addition, the corporation is formed to glorify our Lord Jesus the Christ through ministry involvement with the mission of South Haiti, but not limited to South Haiti. To achieve this end, we will work through established churches and civic organizations whose specific objectives are stated, but not limited to, ministerial, educational, and social areas as follows: 1. The ministerial objectives are multifaceted with a primary focus on South Haiti including: a) To further the work of the church of our Lord Jesus Christ in the South Haiti region b) To make disciples by baptizing people and teaching them obedience to the Lord Jesus c) Establishing churches in towns and villages throughout South Haiti 2. The social objective is to show God's love and mercy to the people of South Haiti as our Lord provides including, but not limited to: a) Management of Christ centered orphanages b) Management of Christ centered schools c) Encourage, instruct, participate in the development of the people and region of South Haiti This corporation will directly perform the following educational objectives: a) Booths at trade shows and other events b) Speaking at churches and other gatherings c) Demonstrations as camp missionaries or at other like venues

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by any organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for the public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principle office of the organization is then located, exclusively for the purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
