Attachment to Articles of Incorporation of Flying L Football Booster Club, Inc.

Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under the section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The business activity for said organization is as follows:

- to unite the parents, students, faculty, alumni, and community in the common interest of supporting and encouraging participation in interscholastic sports programs, recognizing the integral role athletics play in the education and development of our students;
- to promote the mental, physical, emotional, and social benefits of interscholastic athletic competition at Canton High School (referred to as CHS for the remainder of this document);
- to instill a sense of school pride and school spirit in all of our athletes and the community at large - to provide financial support to FLHS football programs; and
- to recognize and reward student athletes for participation in our athletic programs.

No part of the net earnings of this organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth herein. No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of this corporation, assets remaining shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Additional Provisions:

(1) A provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director/board member to the corporation for monetary damages for breach of his duties provided that such provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director:

(a) For any transaction in which the director's personal financial interest is in conflict with the financial interests of the corporation;

(b) For acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or are known to the director to be a violation of law; or

(c) For any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

(2) No such provision shall eliminate or limit the liability of any director for any act or omissions occurring prior to the date when such provision becomes effective. In no case shall this subsection or any such provision be construed to expand the liability of any director or board member.
