ARTICLE 13.
INDEMNIFICATION

13.1 Indemnitees. The Condominium Association shall indemnify any person who was or is a party to any proceeding (other than an action by the Condominium Association) by reason of the fact that he is or was a Director, officer, employer or agent (each, an "Indemnitee") of the Condominium Association against liability incurred in connection with such proceeding, including any appeal thereof, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Condominium Association and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Condominium Association.

H14000213763 3

13.2 Indemnification. The Condominium Association shall indemnify any person who was or is a party to any proceeding by the Condominium Association to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a Director, officer, employee, or agent of the Condominium Association against expenses and amounts paid in settlement not exceeding, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, the estimated expense of litigating the proceeding to conclusion, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such proceeding, including any appeal thereof. Such indemnification shall be authorized if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Condominium Association, except that no indemnification shall be made under this Section 13.2 in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable unless, and only to the extent that, the court in which such proceeding was brought, or any other court of competent jurisdiction shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

13.3 Indemnification for Expenses. To the extent that a Director, officer, employee, or agent of the Condominium Association has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any proceeding referred to in Section 13.1 or Section 13.2, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

13.4 Determination of Applicability. Any indemnification under Section 13.1 or Section 13.2, unless pursuant to a determination by a court, shall be made by the Condominium Association only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Director, officer, employee, or agent is proper under the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 13.1 or Section 13.2. Such determination shall be made:

(a) By approval of 100% of the Directors who were not parties to such proceeding, either by a vote at a duly called Board meeting at which quorum is present or by written consent;

(b) If such an approval or quorum is not obtainable, by majority vote of a Committee duly designated by the Board of Directors (in which Directors who are parties may vote on the members of the Committee) consisting solely of two or more Directors who are not at the time parties to the proceeding;

(c) By Independent legal counsel selected:

(i) by the Board of Directors prescribed in Section 13.4(a) or the Committee prescribed in Section 13.4(b); or

(ii) if an approval of the Directors cannot be obtained for Section 13.4(a) and the Committee cannot be designated under Section 13.4(b), then by approval of a majority of all votes in the Condominium Association who were not parties to such proceeding, either by a vote at a duly called meeting at which quorum is present or by written consent.

13.5 Determination Regarding Expenses. Evaluation of the reasonableness of expenses and authorization of indemnification shall be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible. However, if the determination of permissibility is made by Independent legal counsel, persons specified by subsection b shall evaluate the reasonableness of expenses and may authorize indemnification.

13.6 Advancing Expenses. Expenses incurred by an officer or Director in defending a civil or criminal proceeding may be paid by the Condominium Association in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such Director or officer to repay such amount if he is ultimately found not to be entitled to Indemnification by the Condominium Association pursuant to this section. Expenses incurred by other employees and agents may be paid in advance upon such terms or conditions that the Board of Directors deems appropriate.

13.7 Exclusivity; Exclusions. The Indemnification and advancement of expenses provided pursuant to this Article 13 are not exclusive, and the Condominium Association may make any other or further indemnification or advancement of expenses of any of its Directors, officers, employees, or agents, under any bylaw, agreement, vote of Unit Owners or disinterested Directors, or otherwise. However, indemnification or advancement of expenses shall not be made to or on behalf of any Director, officer, employee, or agent if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that his actions, or omissions to act, were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitute:

(a) A violation of the criminal law, unless the Director, officer, employee, or agent had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful;

(b) A transaction from which the Director, officer, employee, or agent derived an improper personal benefit; or

(c) Willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the Condominium Association in a proceeding by or in the right of the Condominium Association to procure adjudgment in its favor or in a proceeding by or in the right of the members of the Condominium Association.

13.8 Continuing Effect. Indemnification and advancement of expenses as provided in this Article 13 shall continue to a person who has ceased to be a Director, officer, employee, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such person, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified.

13.9 Application to Court. Notwithstanding the failure of the Condominium Association to provide indemnification in any specific case, a Director, officer, employee, or agent of the Condominium Association who is or was a party to a proceeding may apply for indemnification or advancement of expenses, or both, to the court conducting the proceeding, to the circuit court, or to another court of competent jurisdiction. On receipt of an application, the court, after giving any notice that it considers necessary, may order indemnification and advancement of expenses, including expenses incurred in seeking court ordered indemnification or advancement of expenses, if it determines that:

(a) The Director, officer, employee, or agent is entitled to mandatory indemnification under Section 13.2, in which case the court shall also order the Condominium Association to pay the Director reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining court ordered indemnification or advancement of expenses;

(b) The Director, officer, employee, or agent is entitled to Indemnification or advancement of expenses, or both, by virtue of the exercise by the Condominium Association of its power pursuant to Section 13.4; or

(c) The Director, officer, employee, or agent is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification or advancement of expenses, or both, in view of all the relevant circumstances, regardless of whether such person met the standard of conduct set forth in Section 13.1, Section 13.2, or Section 13.3.

13.10 Definitions. For purposes of this Article 13, the term "expenses" shall be deemed to include attorneys' fees, including those for any appeals; the term "liability" shall be deemed to include obligations to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine, and expenses actually and reasonably incurred with respect to a proceeding; the term "proceeding" shall be deemed to include any threatened, pending or completed action, suit, or other type of proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and whether formal or informal; and the term "agent" shall be deemed to include a volunteer; the term "serving at the request of the Condominium Association"

ARTICLE 14.
BYLAWS

The first Bylaws of the Condominium Association shall be adopted by the Board of Directors and may be altered, amended or rescinded in the manner provided in the Bylaws and the Condominium Declaration.

ARTICLE 15.
AMENDMENTS

Amendments to these Articles shall be proposed and adopted in the following manner:

15.1 Notice. Notice of a proposed amendment shall be included in the notice of any meeting at which the proposed amendment is to be considered and shall be otherwise given in the time and manner provided in the Bylaws. Such notice shall contain the proposed amendment or a summary of the changes to be affected thereby.

15.2 Adoption. All amendments to these Articles shall require the approval of a majority of all votes in the Condominium Association, either by a vote at a duly called meeting at which quorum is present or by written consent.
