PURPOSE:

Our purpose is to teach a dying world life by living a lifestyle that reflects Christ. We will do this by being a prime example of what it means to live an honest and Christian lifestyle. We desire to instruct and guide citizens within our community to living a positive lifestyle while utilizing God's Holy Word – The Bible.

We additionally desire to engage in teaching, training and informing individuals about positive biblical solutions to everyday situations. We desire to assist individuals with outlets of hope based upon a Christian foundation. We believe in a Christian approach to success. By strengthening and equipping the Physical, Mental and Spiritual being, we can be used as a viable source to help individuals in becoming Positive Productive Members of Society.

Our ministries provide a range of workshops, seminars, biblical classes, church services, and leadership trainings. We will do this via various Interactions, Activities, Community Outings, and Social Gatherings. With a Christian approach, we can aid in providing a sense of direction, stability, discipline and purpose for individuals. As a result, we will be a positive viable entity to our community, our neighborhood, our city, our state, our country and the world, by encouraging a safer and more respectful environment in which we live.
