ARTICLE 9. LIMITATION OF DIRECTOR LIABILITY

Except to the extent otherwise required by applicable law (as it exists on the date of the adoption of this Article or may be amended from time to time), a director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for conduct as a director, except for liability of the director (i) for acts or omissions which involve intentional misconduct by the director or a knowing violation of law by the director, or (ii) for any transaction from which the director personally receives a benefit in money, property or services to which the director is not legally entitled.

No amendment to or repeal of this Article shall adversely affect any right of protection of any director of the Corporation occurring after the date of the adoption of this Article and prior to such amendment or repeal.

ARTICLE 10. INDEMNIFICATION

The Corporation shall indemnify any director or officer of the Corporation, who is involved in any capacity in a proceeding by reason of the position held by such person or entity in the Corporation, to the full extent allowed by applicable law, as presently in effect and as hereafter amended; provided, however, that the Corporation shall only indemnify a director or officer seeking indemnification in connection with a proceeding initiated by such person if such proceeding or part of a proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors or if such proceeding was brought by a director or officer to enforce a claim for indemnification under this Article and a court or an arbitrator determines that the director or officer is entitled to all of the relief claimed.

By means of a resolution or of a contract specifically approved by the Board of Directors, the Corporation may indemnify an employee or agent to such degree as the Board of Directors determines to be reasonable, appropriate, and consistent with applicable law and to be in the best interests of the Corporation.

The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall have the right to designate the counsel who shall defend any person or entity that may be entitled to indemnification, to approve any settlement, and to approve in advance any expense.

Reasonable expenses incurred by a director or officer, who is involved in any capacity in a proceeding by reason of the position held in the Corporation, shall be advanced by the Corporation to the full extent allowed by applicable law, as presently in effect and as hereafter amended. Reasonable expenses incurred by an employee or agent who is involved in any capacity in a proceeding by reason of the position held by such person or entity in the Corporation may be, but is not required to be, advanced by the Corporation prior to the final disposition of such proceeding to the full extent allowed by applicable law, as presently in effect and as hereafter amended. Expenses shall not be advanced to any director, officer, employee or agent unless that person first promises in a writing delivered to the Corporation to repay all amounts advanced by the Corporation in the event that it is later determined that such person is not entitled to be so indemnified.

The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation or is serving at the request or consent of the Corporation as an officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, other enterprise, or employee benefit plan against any liability incurred by such person because of such person's status, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under the provisions of this Article. In addition, the Corporation may enter into contracts with any director or officer of the Corporation in furtherance of the provisions of this Article and may create a trust fund, grant a security interest, or use other means (including without limitation a letter of credit) to ensure the payment of such amounts as may be necessary or desirable to effect the indemnification and advances contemplated in this Article.

The right to indemnification conferred by this Article shall be interpreted to conform with, and shall not create any right that is inconsistent with, applicable law, as presently in effect and as hereafter amended. To the full extent allowed by applicable law (as presently in effect and as hereafter amended), the right to indemnification conferred by this Article shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such a person. The rights conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other rights which any person may have or acquire under any applicable law (as presently in effect and as hereafter amended), these Articles, the bylaws of the Corporation, a vote of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or otherwise.

If the Florida Not for profit Corporation provisions are amended to expand or increase the power of the Corporation to indemnify, to pay expenses in advance of final disposition, to enter into contracts, or to expand or increase any similar or related power, then, without any further requirement of action by the directors of this Corporation, the powers described in this Article shall be expanded and increased to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article, no indemnification shall be provided to any person if in the opinion of counsel payment of such indemnification would cause the Corporation to lose its tax-exempt status, if any, from federal income taxation.

No amendment to or repeal of this Article shall adversely affect any right of protection of any director, officer, employee or agent for events occurring after the date of the adoption of this Article and prior to such amendment or repeal.

ARTICLE 11. GENERAL PROVISIONS

11.1 Amendment. The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in its Articles in any manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute. All rights of the directors and officers of the Corporation are granted subject to this reservation.

11.2 Savings Clause; Governing Law. These Articles shall be governed by the laws of the State of Florida. Any provision prohibited by law or unenforceable shall not affect the remaining provisions of these Articles. However, in any conflict with Section 501(c) (3), 509(a) (1) or (2) of the Code and the Regulations thereunder, those Code Sections and Regulations shall govern.
