ARTICLE III

- A. This corporation is organized and shall operate for educational, cultural, charitable and scientific research purposes. Such purposes shall include, but not be limited to, providing therapeutic, cultural and educational opportunities for individuals and families with special needs. Such activities shall be limited in all events to exempt purposes described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. This Corporation may engage in activities permitted under the laws of the State of Florida, and the United States of America, as shall constitute activities in furtherance of purposes of exemption. This corporation shall not be operated for profit. In furtherance of its exempt purposes, the corporation may promote, establish, conduct and maintain activities on its own behalf, and may contribute to or assist other corporations, organizations and institutions which conduct exempt activities.
- B. For the purposes in which this corporation is being operated, it shall have the following powers:
 - B.1) To solicit, acquire, hold by bequest, devise, grant, purchase, lease, transfer, exchange, gift, accept, receive, or otherwise, for any of its objects and purpose, any property, both real and personal, of whatever nature or description and wherever situated, and

B.2) To sell, mortgage, lease, transfer, dispose, convey any such property, both real and personal, as the objects and purpose of the corporation may require, subject to applicable limitations within the law; and

B.3) To borrow money, but only as authorized by the Board of Directors, and to make, accept, execute, endorse and issue bonds, debentures, bills of exchange, promissory notes and other obligations of the corporation for funds borrowed or in payment acquired or for any of the other purposes of the corporation, and to secure payment of any such obligations by pledge, deed, indenture, agreement or other instrument of trust, mortgage, or by other lien upon, assignment of, or agreement in regard to all or any of the rights or privileges of the corporation, wherever situated; and

B.4) To maintain bank deposit balances in excess of federal insurance limitations; and

B.5) To invest or reinvest its funds in such stocks, bonds, mortgages, debentures, investments or other securities and property as its Board of Directors shall deem advisable; and subject to the limitations contained in any grant, gift, bequest, or devise; and

B.6) Exercise such other powers which now are or which hereafter may be conferred by law upon a corporation organized for the purposes set forth or necessary or incidental to the powers so conferred or conducive to achievement of the purposes of the corporation, subject to limitations as prescribed by law.

- C. This corporation may exercise only such powers as are in accordance with exempt purposes of 501 (c)(3) organizations of the Internal Revenue Code, and its regulations as they now exist, or as they may be amended hereafter from time to time.
- D. No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or attempt to influence legislation, and this corporation shall not participate in or intervene in any political campaign or in opposition of any candidate for public office.
- E. No part of the income of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of nor will be distributed to any member or board director of the corporation, or any private individual, in such a fashion as to constitute an application of funds not within the exempt purposes within the parameters defined within the Internal Revenue Code Section 501 (c)(3). Reimbursement for expenditures and the payment of reasonable compensation for services rendered shall not be deemed to be a distribution of income or principal.
- F. In the event of dissolution of the corporation, or complete or partial liquidation, whether voluntary or involuntary, no member or board director shall be entitled to any distribution or division of the corporation's property or proceeds, and the balance of all money received by the corporation shall be used or distributed subject to the order of the Circuit Court of the State of Florida, as provided by law, for one or more exempt purposes within the section of 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or to the federal, state or local government for public purposes. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office is then located.

ARTICLE IV - TERM OF EXISTENCE

This corporation shall exist perpetually.

ARTICLE V - DIRECTORS

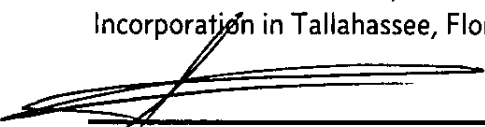

This corporation shall have (2) Directors, initially. The number of Directors may be increased or diminished from time to time, in accordance with the Corporation Bylaws, but shall never be less than two (2). Directors shall be elected or appointed as provided in the Bylaws. All corporate power shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the corporation shall be managed under the direction of the Directors of the corporation. The corporation's Bylaws may provide for members; however, the Directors shall have sole voting power.
