PURPOSES AND RESTRICTIONS

Section 1. Purposes. The Corporation is a not-for-profit corporation that is organized and shall be operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding subsequent federal tax law (the "Code"), and not for pecuniary profit.

The Corporation may carry on such other activities in furtherance of and support of the foregoing purposes as are lawful and proper for corporations formed under the Act and Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Section 2. Restrictions.

(a) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers or other private persons, nor shall the Corporation's assets or earnings be expended for the benefit of anyone other than a recipient of funds for charitable, educational, literary or scientific purposes, it being intended that all such earnings and assets shall be used and expended solely for the purposes stated in section 501(c)(3) of the Code. The Corporation shall, however, be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for personal services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of any of its purposes.

(b) No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided in subsection (h) of the section 501 of the Code), and the Corporation shall not participate or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.
