We received your electronically transmitted document. However, the document has not been filed. Please make the following corrections and refax the complete document, including the electronic filing cover sheet.

The Florida Statutes require an entity to designate a street address for its principal office address. A post office box is not acceptable for the principal office address. The entity may, however, designate a separate mailing address. The mailing address may be a post office box.

If your business entity does not intend to transact business until January 1st of the upcoming calendar year, you may wish to revise your document to include an effective date of January 1st. If you do not list an effective date of January 1st, your business entity will become effective this calendar year and it will be required to file an annual report and pay the required annual report fee for the upcoming calendar year this coming January, which is merely weeks away. By listing an effective date of January 1st, the entity's existence will not begin until January 1st of the upcoming year and will, therefore, postpone the entity's requirement to file an annual report and pay the required annual report filing fee until the following calendar year.

If you have any further questions concerning your document, please call (850) 245-6052.

The undersigned incorporator, for the purpose of forming a corporation not for profit pursuant to the laws of the State of Florida, hereby adopts the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I. NAME OF CORPORATION

The name of this corporation shall be ARLINGTON PLACE CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, INC. (the "Association"). The principal office of the Association is 1810 Chippewa Trail, Maitland, Florida 32751.

ARTICLE II. GENERAL NATURE OF BUSINESS

The general nature of the business to be conducted by the Association shall be the operation and management of the affairs and property of the Condominium known as Arlington Place Condominium (the "Condominium"), located in Orange County, Florida, and to perform all acts provided in the Declaration of Condominium of said Condominium (the "Declaration") and the Condominium Act (all capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in the Declaration).

ARTICLE III. POWERS

The Association shall have all of the statutory powers of a corporation not for profit and all of the powers and duties set forth in the Condominium Act, the Declaration, these Articles and the Bylaws. By example and not in limitation of the broad powers set forth in the preceding sentence, the Association shall have the following powers:

A. The irrevocable right to have access to each Unit from time to time during reasonable hours as may be necessary for the maintenance, repair or replacement of any Common Elements or any portion of a Unit, if any, to be maintained by the Association pursuant to the Declaration, or as necessary to prevent damage to the Common Elements, the Association Property or to a Unit or Units.

B. The power to make and collect Assessments and other charges against Unit Owners and to use the proceeds thereof in the exercise of its powers and duties.

C. The power to maintain, repair and replace the Common Elements and Association Property and other property acquired or leased by the Association.

Personal property shall be acquired or encumbered upon a majority vote of the Owners at a meeting of the Owners, unless the cost thereof exceeds Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00) in a single transaction, or Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) in the aggregate in any 12-month period, subject to annual Consumer Price Index increases as more particularly provided in the Declaration, then in either event the acquisition or encumbrance shall require an affirmative vote of not less than the Required Voting Interest. J. The power to enforce by legal means the provisions of the Act, the Declaration, these Articles, the Bylaws, and the rules and regulations for the use of the Condominium Property, subject, however, to the limitation regarding enforcement of certain provisions against the Developer and Units owned by the Developer as set forth in the Declaration.

K. The power to contract for the management and maintenance of the Condominium Property and to authorize a management agent (who may be an affiliate of the Developer) to assist the Association in carrying out its powers and duties by performing such functions as the submission of proposals, collection of assessments, preparation of records, enforcement of rules and maintenance, repair and replacement of the Common Elements with such funds as shall be made available by the Association for such purposes. P. The power, upon approval of the Required Voting Interest, to contract for and acquire one or more Units within the Condominium for such purposes that are not in conflict with the Declaration, these Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws, which shall include the power to assume or grant a mortgage encumbering the Unit(s) acquired by the Association.

R. All of the powers which a corporation not for profit in the State of Florida may exercise pursuant to the Declaration, these Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws, Chapters 607 and 617, Florida Statutes and the Condominium Act, in all cases except as expressly limited or restricted in the Condominium Act.

All persons owning a vested present interest in the fee title to any of the Units of the Condominium as evidenced by a duly recorded proper instrument in the public records of the county in which the Condominium is located, shall be "Members" of the Association. INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

A. Indemnity. The Association shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or contemplated action, suit or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, employee, officer or agent of the Association, against expenses (including attorneys' fees and appellate attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceedings, unless (i) a court of competent jurisdiction determines, after all available appeals have been exhausted or not pursued by the proposed indemnitee, that he did not act in good faith, nor in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Association, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that he had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, and (ii) such court further specifically determines that indemnification should be denied. The termination of any action, suit or proceedings by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Association, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

B. Expenses. To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of the Association has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in ARTICLE XI.A above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees and appellate attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

C. Advances. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Association in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceedings upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the affected director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Association as authorized in this ARTICLE XI.

D. Miscellaneous. The indemnification provided by this ARTICLE XI shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of Members or otherwise, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representatives of such person.

E. Insurance. The Association shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Association, or is or was serving, at the request of the Association, as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

F. Amendment. Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, the provisions of this ARTICLE XI may not be amended without the prior written consent of all persons whose interest would be adversely affected by such amendment.

ARTICLE XII. RIGHTS OF DEVELOPER
