The Board of Directors will be those elected in conformance with the By-Laws to be adopted by the initial Board and approved by the membership at the first annual meeting.

ARTICLE VI
BYLAWS

The Bylaws of the corporation shall initially be made and adopted by its first Board of Directors and thereafter approved by the membership as may be provided in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE VII
PROHIBITED TRANSACTIONS

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempt to influence legislation and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributions of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE VIII
DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. This distribution will be made in favor of a similarly exempt chartered organization at the local Palm Beach County Level.

ARTICLE IX
AMENDMENTS OF ARTICLES

The Articles of Incorporation may be amended by Membership at any meeting called for that purpose provided the Amendment is approved by the members of the Board at a special meeting called for the purpose of considering amending the Articles of Incorporation, or a special meeting called for the purpose of considering amending the Articles of Incorporation, and providing that the Amendment is filed with the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE X
INDEMNIFICATION

Each and every officer and director of the corporation shall be indemnified by the corporation against all costs, expenses, and liabilities, including legal fees reasonably incurred by or imposed on such officer or director in connection with any claim, demand or proceeding to which such officer or director may become involved by reason of their being or having been an officer or director of this corporation whether or not such person is an officer or director at the time such expenses are incurred, provided however, if such officer or director is adjudged guilty of willful misfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of the duties of such officer or director, the corporation shall not indemnify any claim or proceeding, the indemnification herein provided shall be applicable only when settled and shall determine that such indemnification shall be in the best interest of the officer or director and the corporation. The corporation may purchase such insurance policies as the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall deem appropriate to provide such indemnification. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to, but not exclusive of, any and all other rights to which such officer or director may be entitled.
