ARTICLE III – PURPOSE

- Section 1. The Corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- Section 2. The main purpose of this organization is to act as a family advocacy and community resource center. The organization shall provide scholarship funding for college students, counseling, information and referrals to other governmental and not for profit organizations to assist adults and children in attaining education, training, life skills and assistance in order to be stable and successful members of the community.
- Section 3. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
- Section 4. No part of the net earnings of the corporations shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Section 3 hereof.
- Section 5. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE IV – MANNER OF ELECTION

- Section 1. One month before election of officers, the directors shall appoint a nominating committee of three (3) active members who shall submit a slate of officers at the following meeting. The names shall then be placed in nomination. All nominated officers must have expressed their willingness to serve prior to the date of the election. Additional members may be nominated from the floor at this time.
- Section 2. Only active members in good standing shall serve as officers of the Association. In keeping with the best interest of the Association, every effort should be made to rotate the officer positions equally throughout the County.
- Section 3. Election of officers shall be at the December meeting of each year, or as vacancies occur.
- Section 4. Newly elected officers will be installed at a special installation meeting in the month of January each year.
- Section 5. The office of President, Vice-President, Treasurer, and Secretary, will each carry a term of one (1) year.
