Section 3.01. Purposes. Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Without limiting the foregoing, the express purposes of the corporation is to increase access and awareness to affordable cycling. Towards this end, the Corporation will develop or assist with the development of a community-based bike shop, as well as provide educational opportunities for low and no-income individuals and families to gain the knowledge necessary to maintain and increase community access to affordable bicycles.

The corporation may exercise all rights and powers conferred on not for profit corporations under the laws of Florida, provided, however, that the corporation shall not engage in any activities or exercise any powers, that are not in furtherance of the specific and primary charitable and educational purposes of the corporation. All of the foregoing purposes and powers shall be exercised exclusively for those charitable and educational purposes and shall be exercised in such manner that the corporation shall qualify as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as it is currently or hereafter may be in force and effect.

Section 14.01. Distribution of Assets. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

*Amendments to the bylaws are indicated by bold and italics.
