Article III is being ammended to read: This corporation is founded exclusively for charitable educational purposes within the meaning of the IRS Code Sec 501(c)(3); Namely: to assist poor and underprivileged late teens and adults who are unable to complete their high school studies in a conventional manner. It will receive applications and referrals from the community to identify potential students who are in need of this assistance. It will provide these students a real High School education and a real diploma. It will maintain a network of employers, vocational schools and colleges who accept its diplomas and transcripts and it will encourage graduates to continue on in life or education. Students needing a GED for the pursuit of their goals will be adequately prepared to take those exams. This corporation will encourage all its students.
In so doing the corporation will provide relief to the needy and impoverished, promote equality and fight delinquency among the youth. No part of this corporation's earning will be benefit any private person, unless is in the form of compensation paid to officers and teachers in the fulfillment of their duties, in the form of teaching, books and other learning aids provided to students or as compensation paid to directors for losses resulting directly from the fulfillment of their duties. This corporation will not attempt to influence legislation in any way or intervene on behalf of any political candidate.
The original Article III remains in force, except in the case of any conflicts between the original article III and this amended one. In such a case this Article III will supersede.
