ARTICLE VIII
MEMBERS

The Corporation shall have no members.

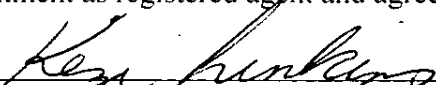

ARTICLE IX
POWERS

The powers which the Corporation may exercise in carrying out the prescribed purposes are described in the following paragraphs:

a. The Corporation is empowered to do everything and anything reasonably and lawfully necessary, proper, suitable, or convenient for the achievement of the purposes stated above, or for any of them, or for the furtherance of said purposes. The Corporation is specifically authorized to solicit and accept donations in furtherance of the purposes stated above.

b. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all the legal liabilities of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity.
