ARTICLE III - PURPOSE FOR WHICH THE CORPORATION IS ORGANIZED

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, with the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Specifically, the corporation is organized to conduct a food assembly event that will bring together volunteers prepared to donate time and money to package meals for the hungry and food insecure in our area.

ARTICLE IV – MANNER OF ELECTIONS

The manner in which the directors are elected and appointed shall be that at all meetings, except for the election of officers and directors, all votes shall be by voice. For election of officers, ballots shall be provided and there shall not appear any place on such ballot that might tend to indicate the person who cast such ballot.

At any regular or special meeting, if a majority so requires, any question may be voted upon in the manner and style provided for election of officers and directors. At all votes by ballot the Chairman of such meeting shall, prior to the commencement of balloting, appoint a committee of three who shall act as "Inspectors of Election" and who shall, at the conclusion of such balloting, certify in writing to the Chairman the results and the certified copy shall be physically affixed in the minute book to the minutes of that meeting.

No inspector of election shall be a candidate for office or shall be personally interested in the question voted upon.
