ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

S.M.I.L.E. FOUNDATION, INC.
(Not-For-Profit Corporation)

ARTICLE I

The name of the Corporation shall remain the same as:

S.M.I.L.E. FOUNDATION, INC.

ARTICLE II

The principal place of business of the Corporation:

6114 SW 35th Court
Miramar, FL 33023

The mailing address of the Corporation:

6114 SW 35th Court
Miramar, FL 33023

ARTICLE III

3.1 S.M.I.L.E. Foundation, Inc. shall also be known as Single Mothers Inspired, Loved, and Empowered.

The Corporation is formed for the benefit of, to perform the function of, or to carry out the purposes of Emmanuel Apostolic Church, Inc. It is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, and recreational purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The Corporation through financial support will motivate and assist Single Mothers with minor children who are truly in need of some temporary assistance, just to get by, and support their families. This assistance includes, but is not limited to, medical treatment, living assistance, job training and counseling, thus leading them to become independent, productive, and contributing members of our society.

The Corporation shall have the power and authority:

- (i) to receive assistance, money (as grants, membership dues or otherwise), real or personal property and any other forms of contributions, gifts, bequests or devises from any person, firm or corporation to be utilized in the furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation;

- (ii) to enter into agreements or contracts for contributions to the Corporation for its objectives and purposes, subject to the bylaws of the Corporation;
- (iii) to distribute, in the manner, form and method, and by the means determined by the Board of Directors, any and all forms of contributions received by it in carrying out the programs of the Corporation in the furtherance of its objectives and purposes;
- (iv) to purchase, acquire, own, hold, guarantee, sell, design, transfer, mortgage, pledge, loan or otherwise dispose of and deal in any bonds, securities, evidence of indebtedness or other personal property, as well as to purchase, acquire, own, hold, sell, transfer, mortgage or otherwise dispose of any real estate; and as the owner of any such real or personal property, to exercise all rights, powers and privileges of ownership.

All of the above and foregoing are to be construed both as objectives and powers, and it is expressly provided that the enumerated shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the general powers of the Corporation. Subject to the limitations set forth below, the Corporation may do all things requisite and necessary, proper and desirable to carry out and further its purposes; and in general, has all the privileges, immunities and benefits not required to be stated specifically in these Articles, for which corporations may be incorporated under Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, which is the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act.

3.2 Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation:

(a) The Corporation shall not be operated for profit. It may only engage in activities that may be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and by a corporation to which contributions are deductible under Sections 170(c), 2055, and 2522 of the Internal Revenue Code. To the extent consistent with Section 501(c)(3), the Corporation may exercise any and all powers conferred upon non-profit corporations by Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes.

(b) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Three hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

3.3 The Corporation is organized pursuant to Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes and does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit; it has no capital stock and is not authorized to issue capital stock.

3.4 In accordance with section 617.0834 of the Florida Statutes, no loans shall be made by the Corporation to its directors or officers.

3.5 The term of the Corporation shall be perpetual and shall commence its corporate existence on the date of filing by the Secretary of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE IV

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE V

5.1 The manner in which directors for the Corporation's Board of Directors are elected or appointed shall be set forth in the bylaws of the Corporation.

5.2 All voting power, including, without limitation, power to vote on amending the Articles of Incorporation, is vested in the Board of Directors of the Corporation.
