ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
ELIZABETH BROWN FOUNDATION, INC.

ARTICLE I. - NAME

The name of the corporation shall be the ELIZABETH BROWN FOUNDATION, INC. (the "Corporation").

ARTICLE II. - STATEMENT OF CORPORATE NATURE

This is a nonprofit corporation organized solely for general charitable purposes pursuant to the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act set forth in Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes (the "Act").

ARTICLE III. - GENERAL AND SPECIFIC PURPOSES; PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

Section 1. General and Specific Purposes. The Corporation, in general, is organized exclusively for religious, educational and charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). More specifically, the objects and purposes of the Corporation shall, in general scope, be as follows:

- (A) To aid and assist in charitable and educational activities for the moral, mental, intellectual, and physical development of young men and women of this country.
- (B) To aid and assist in charitable and welfare activities for the maintenance and care of animals.
- (C) To aid and assist in charitable activities for preservation of and maintenance of public parks.
- (D) To aid and assist in charitable activities which are devoted to conservancy, preserving, and maintaining this country's natural resources and habitat.
- (E) To aid and assist in charitable activities which are devoted to the arts, whether it be in the fields of music, art, drama, dance, or literature.

The Corporation shall hold its assets for investment and to distribute at a minimum the income therefrom to carry out the above identified specific charitable purposes exclusively to one or multiple charitable organizations that qualify as a public charity within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) and Section 509(a)(1), (2), or (3) of the Code.

Further, the Corporation is organized and operated to receive and administer funds for such charitable and educational purposes by bequest, devise, gift, purchase, or lease, either absolutely or in trust for such objects and purposes or any of them, any property, real, personal or mixed, without limitation as to amount of value, except such limitations, if any, as may be imposed by law; to sell, convey, and dispose of any such property and to invest and reinvest the principal thereof, and to deal with and expend the income therefrom for any of the before-mentioned purposes, without limitation, except such limitations, if any, as may be contained in the instrument under which such property is received; to receive any property, real, personal mixed, in trust, under the terms of any will, deed of trust, or other trust instrument for the foregoing purposes or any of them, and in administering the same to carry out the directions, and exercise the powers contained in the trust instrument under which the property is received, including the expenditure of the principal as well as the income, for one or more of such purposes, if authorized or directed in the trust instrument under which it is received, but no gift, bequest or devise of any such property shall be received and accepted if it be conditioned or limited in such manner as shall require the disposition of the income or its principal to any person or organization other than an "exempt organization" or for other than "exempt purposes" within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) and Section 509(a)(1), (2), or (3) of the Code, or as shall in the opinion of the Board of Directors, jeopardize the federal income tax exemption of the Corporation pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Code; to receive, take title to, hold, and use the proceeds and income of stocks, bonds, obligations, or other securities of any corporation or corporations, domestic or foreign, but only for the foregoing purposes, or some of them; and, in general, to exercise any, all and every power for which a non-profit corporation organized under the applicable provisions of the Act for religious, educational and charitable purposes all for the public welfare, can be authorized to exercise, but only to the extent the exercise of such powers are in furtherance of exempt purposes.

Section 2. Prohibited Activities. The Corporation shall not attempt to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise; nor shall it directly or indirectly participate in, or intervene in (by publication or distribution of any statements or otherwise) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. The Corporation may not (i) engage in any act of "self-dealing," as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code, which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4941(a) of the Code; (ii) retain any "excess business holdings," as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code, which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4943(a) of the Code; (iii) make any investment which would jeopardize the carrying out of any of its exempt purposes, within the meaning of Section 4944 of the Code, so as to give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4944(a) of the Code; and (iv) make any "taxable expenditures", as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code, which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed in Section 4945(a) of the Code. Further, the Corporation shall distribute for its exempt purpose, amounts at least sufficient to avoid liability for the tax imposed by Section 4942(a) of the Code.
