AMENDED AND RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

ANTONIO BROWN CHARITIES, INC.

The Board of Directors of the Antonio Brown Charities, at a special meeting of the officers and directors of the corporation voted for a complete restatement of the Articles of Incorporation in order to comply with the rules and regulations for a qualified exempt organization as that term is defined under Section 501 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code, as follows:

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this corporation is:

ANTONIO BROWN CHARITIES, INC.

ARTICLE II - ADDRESS

The principal address of this corporation is:

1000 West Avenue, Unit 608
Miami Beach, FL 33139

ARTICLE III - DURATION

This corporation shall exist perpetually, unless sooner dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE IV - PURPOSE

This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational and scientific purposes, as more fully set forth below, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(A) To provide [or to fund other charitable, 501 (c) (3) exempt, organizations to provide]: support to children with educational and financial challenges; focus on the enhancement of the lives of at risk youth and families in distress. Such support will include developing tutoring and mentoring programs for the purpose of improving or developing the individual's physical, mental and educational capabilities, concentrating on core curriculum subjects and additional subjects useful to the individual and community.

(B) To help develop [or to fund other charitable, 501 (c) (3) exempt, organizations to provide] in children and youth, self confidence and self esteem, fitness and health and to learn the value of giving to others in the community.

(C) To fund qualified charitable organizations in order to foster education, relieve the poor, heal the sick and aid the distressed and helpless.

ARTICLE V - LIMITATIONS ON FUNDS

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, officers, trustees, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article IV hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE VI - DISSOLUTION/ASSET DISTRIBUTION

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the County in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such exempt purposes or to such organizations, as the Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such exempt purposes.

ARTICLE VII - MANAGEMENT

A Board of Directors of at least three (3) members, who shall elect a President, a Vice President, a Secretary and a Treasurer, shall manage the affairs of this not-for-profit corporation. The elected officers, together with such other officers or boards as may be designated in the bylaws of the corporation, shall run the day-to-day operation of the organization. The Board of Directors shall be elected annually by the members of the corporation in a manner prescribed in the bylaws of the corporation.

ARTICLE VIII - REGISTERED AGENT AND OFFICE

The name and address of the initial registered agent of this corporation is:
