Article III

The specific purpose for which this corporation is organized is:

- A. This corporation is organized and shall operate exclusively for charitable, educational and scientific purposes, including but not limited to exempt purposes described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and this corporation may engage in only such activities permitted under the laws of the State of Florida and the United States of America as shall constitute activities in furtherance of such exempt purpose. Notwithstanding anything contained in this paragraph to the contrary, this corporation shall not operate for religious purposes; provided however, it may be used for charitable activities sponsored by religious organizations which are consistent with the purpose of this corporation. In furtherance of such purposes, it may promote, establish, conduct and maintain activities on its own behalf and it may contribute to otherwise assist other corporations, organizations and institutions carrying on exempt activities.
- B. As a means and incidental to accomplishing the purposes for which this corporation is being organized, it shall have the following powers:
 - 1) To accept, acquire, receive and hold by bequest, devise, grant, gift, purchase, exchange, lease, transfer or otherwise, for any of its objects and purposes, any property, both real and personal, of every nature or description and wherever situated;
 - 2) To sell exchange, convey, mortgage, lease, transfer or otherwise dispose of any such property, both real and personal as the objects and purposes of the corporation may require, subject to such limitation as may be prescribed by law; and
 - 3) To borrow money and, from time to time, to make accept, endorse, execute and issue bonds, debentures, promissory notes, bills of exchange and borrowed or in payment for property acquired or for any of the other purposes of the corporation, and to secure the payment of any such obligations by mortgages, pledge, deed, indenture, agreement or other instrument of trust, or by other lien upon, assignment of, or agreement in regard to all or any part of the property, rights or privileges of the corporation, wherever situated; and
 - 4) To invest or reinvest its funds in such stocks, bonds, debentures, mortgages or other investments or securities and property as its Board of Directors shall deem advisable, subject to the limitations and conditions contained in any bequest, devise, grant or gift; and

- 5) To maintain a margin account and conduct business in the margin account in the same fashion in which an individual may conduct business, including but not limited to buying on margin, selling short, buying and selling options, maintaining a special subscription account and dealing in commodities; and
 - 6) To serve as trustee of any property, real or personal wheresoever situated either within or without the State of Florida; and
 - 7) In general to exercise such other powers which now are or which hereafter may be conferred by law upon a corporation organized for the purposes hereinabove set forth or necessary or incidental to the powers so conferred or conducive to the attainment of the purposes of the corporation, subject to such limitations as are or may be prescribed by law.
- C. Notwithstanding anything herein to the company, this corporation may exercise any and all but no other, powers as are in furtherance of the exempt purposes of organizations set forth in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and its Regulations as the same now exist, or as they may be hereafter amended from time to time.
 - D. No part of the income or principal of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributed to any individual in such a fashion as to constitute an application of funds not within the purpose of exempt organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. However, reimbursement for expenditures or the payment of reasonable compensation for services rendered shall not be deemed to be a distribution of income or principal.
 - E. No part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, or of participating in, or intervening in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any Political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.
 - F. In the event of the complete or partial liquidation or dissolution of the corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, no director or officer shall be entitled to any distribution or division of the corporation's property or its proceeds, and the balance of all money and other property received by the corporation from any source, after the payment of all debts distributed, and obligations of the corporation, shall be used or subject to the order of the Circuit Court of the State of Florida, as provided by law, exclusively to an organization or organizations which themselves are exempt as organizations described in Sections 501(c)(3) and 170 (c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or corresponding sections or any proper or future law), or to the federal, state or local government for exclusively public purposes.
 - G. The corporation will distribute its income each tax year at a time and in a manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future tax code.
 - H. The corporation will not go engage in any act of self-dealing as in defined in section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
