The principal place of business and mailing address of the corporation shall be: 4450 Botanical Place Circle #106, Naples, Florida 34112.

ARTICLE III - Purpose

The purposes for which this corporation is organized are as follows:

1. To educate and promote the humane treatment of animals, responsible pet ownership, and the rescue and adoption of homeless pets.
2. To provide financial support to other charitable organizations whose primary purpose is to provide safe temporary housing, general care, and medical treatment when needed to surrendered, homeless, abandoned, and/or unwanted companion animals, until a permanent home can be found (hereinafter referred to as animal rescues).
3. To promote and develop fundraising projects to carry out the purpose of this corporation.
4. To accept donations from individuals to carry out the purpose of this corporation; however, the corporation will not actively engage in solicitation of funds from the general public.
5. To engage in any other lawful purpose permitted to be engaged in by not-for-profit corporations under the laws of the State of Florida. However, the corporation shall not engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the charitable and educational purposes of the corporation.
6. The corporation shall not have nor issue shares of stock.

7. The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE IV – Prohibited Activities

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
