In order to form a corporation under the laws of Florida for the formation of corporations not for profit, we, the undersigned, associate ourselves into a corporation (the "Condominium Association") for the purposes and with the powers specified; and to that end do, by these Articles of Incorporation (the "Articles"), set forth:

ARTICLE I

The name and principal address of the corporation shall be PROFESSIONAL PLAZA CONDOMINIUM, INC., 5228 State Road 54, New Port Richey, Florida 34652.

ARTICLE II

The purposes and objects of the Condominium Association shall be to administer the operation and management of PROFESSIONAL PLAZA CONDOMINIUM, a Condominium (the "Condominium"), to be established as a condominium in accordance with the Florida Condominium Act (the "Act") upon land situated in Pasco County, Florida (the "Land"), described on the attached Exhibit "A", and to perform the acts and duties incident to operation and management of the Condominium in accordance with the provisions of these Articles, the Bylaws of the Condominium Association which will be adopted (the "Bylaws"), and the Declaration of Condominium (the "Declaration"), which will be recorded in the Public Records of Pasco County, Florida, if, as and when the Land, and the improvements constructed on it, are submitted to the condominium form of ownership; and to own, operate, encumber, lease, manage, sell, convey, exchange, and otherwise deal with the Land, the improvements and such other property, real and/or personal, as may be or become part of the Condominium (the "Condominium Property") to the extent necessary or convenient in the administration of the Condominium. The Condominium Association shall be conducted as a non-profit organization for the benefit of its members.

ARTICLE III

The Condominium Association shall have the following powers:

- A. All of the powers and privileges granted to corporations not for profit under the laws pursuant to which this corporation is chartered.
- B. All of the powers reasonably necessary to implement and effectuate the purposes of the Condominium Association, including, without limitation, the power, authority and right to:

1. Make and establish reasonable rules and regulations governing use of the Units and Common Elements in and of the Condominium, as such terms are defined in the Declaration.

2. Levy and collect assessments against members of the Condominium Association to defray the Common Expenses of the Condominium, as provided in the Declaration and by Bylaws; including the right to levy and collect assessments for the purpose of acquiring, owning, holding, operating, leasing, encumbering, selling, conveying, exchanging, managing and otherwise dealing with the Condominium Property, including the Units, which may be necessary or convenient in the operation and management of the Condominium and in accomplishing the purposes set forth in the Declaration.

3. Maintain, repair, replace, operate and manage the Condominium Property, including the right to reconstruct improvements after casualty and further to improve and add to the Condominium Property.

4. Contract for the management of the Condominium and, in connection therewith, to delegate powers and duties of the Condominium Association to the extent and in the manner permitted by the Declaration, the Bylaws and the Act.

5. Enforce the provisions of these Articles, the Declaration, the Bylaws, and all rules and regulations governing use of the Condominium which may from time to time be established.

6. Exercise, undertake and accomplish all of the rights, duties and obligations which may be granted to or imposed upon the Condominium Association in the Declaration and the Act.

ARTICLE IV

The qualification of members, the manner of their admission to and termination of membership, and voting by members shall be as follows:

A. The record Owners (as defined in the Declaration) of all Units in the Condominium from time to time shall be members of the Condominium Association, and no other persons or entities shall be entitled to membership, except as provided for in Paragraph E, Article IV, of these Articles.

B. Membership shall be established by the acquisition of fee title to a Unit in the Condominium, or by acquisition of a fee ownership interest therein, by voluntary conveyance or operation of law, and the membership of any person or entity shall be automatically terminated when such person or entity is divested of all title or ownership in such Unit; provided, that nothing contained in these Articles shall be construed as terminating the membership of any person or entity owning fee title to or a fee ownership interest in two or more Units at any time while such person or entity shall retain fee title to or a fee ownership interest in any Unit.

C. The interest of a member in the funds and assets of the Condominium Association cannot be assigned, hypothecated, transferred or encumbered in any manner, except as an appurtenance to the Units owned by such member. The funds and assets of the Condominium Association shall be expended, held, or used only for the benefit of the membership and for the purposes authorized herein, in the Declaration, and in the Bylaws.

D. On all matters on which the membership shall be entitled to vote, there shall be one (1), and only one (1), vote for each Unit in the Condominium, which vote may be exercised or cast by the Owner(s) of each Unit as will be provided for in the Bylaws. Should any member own more than one Unit, such member shall be entitled to exercise or cast one (1) vote for each such Unit owned, in the manner provided by the Bylaws.

E. Until such time as the condominium is established by recordation of a declaration of condominium therefor in the Public records of Pasco County, Florida, the membership of the Condominium Association shall be comprised of the subscribers to these Articles, each of whom shall be entitled to cast a vote on all matters upon which the membership would be entitled to vote.

ARTICLE V

The Condominium Association shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE VI

The principal office of the Condominium Association shall be located in Florida, but the Condominium Association may maintain offices and transact business in such places, within or without the State of Florida, as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VII

The affairs of the Condominium Association shall be managed by the President of the Condominium Association, assisted by the Vice President(s), Secretary and Treasurer and, if any, the Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers, subject to the directions of the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association (the "Board of Directors"). The Board of Directors, or the President with the approval of the Board of Directors, may employ a managing agent, agency, and/or other managerial and supervisory personnel or entity to administer or assist in the administration of the operation and management of the Condominium and the affairs of the Condominium Association, and any and all such persons and/or entities may be so employed without regard to whether any such person or entity is a member of the Condominium Association or a Director or officer of the Condominium Association, as the case may be.

ARTICLE VIII

The number of members on the first Board of Directors, who shall serve until their successors are designated by Developer or elected at the first annual meeting of the Condominium Association following recordation of the Declaration, shall be three (3). The number of members of succeeding Boards of Directors shall also be three (3), or as otherwise provided from time to time by the Bylaws, and they shall be elected by Developer or the members of the Condominium Association at the annual meetings of the membership as provided by the Bylaws. Each of the members of all succeeding Boards of Directors shall be members of the Condominium Association or shall be authorized representatives, officers or employees of a corporate member of the Condominium Association, except for those Directors who are appointed by the Developer.

When (but not before) Unit Owners other than Developer own at least fifteen (15%) percent of the Units, the Unit Owners, other than Developer, shall be entitled to elect, as a group and in a manner to be provided in the Bylaws, one-third (1/3) of the members of the Board of Directors. Unit Owners, other than Developer, shall be entitled to elect, as a group and in a manner to be provided in the Bylaws, a majority of the members of the Board of Directors upon the earlier to occur of:

- (a) Three (3) years after fifty (50%) percent of the Units have been conveyed to purchasers; or
- (b) Three (3) months after ninety (90%) percent of the Units have been conveyed to purchasers; or
- (c) When all the Units that will be operated ultimately by the Condominium Association have been completed, some of them have been conveyed to purchasers, and none of the others are being offered for sale by the Developer in the ordinary course of business; or
- (d) When some of the Units have been conveyed to purchasers and none of the others are being constructed or offered for sale by the Developer in the ordinary course of business; or
- (e) Seven (7) years after recordation of the Declaration; or
- (f) Upon written agreement of the Developer.

Developer shall have the right to elect all members of the Board of Directors which Unit Owners other than Developer are not entitled to elect; and, in any event, Developer shall have the right to elect not less than one (1) member of the Board of Directors as long as Developer holds for sale in the ordinary course of business at least five (5%) percent of the Units. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Developer shall be entitled at any time to waive in writing its rights under these Articles, and thereafter to vote in elections for members of the Board of Directors in the same manner as any other Unit Owner of the Condominium Association, except for the purposes of reacquiring control of the Condominium Association or selecting the majority members of the Board of Directors. At the time Unit Owners other than Developer elect a majority of the members of the Board of Directors, Developer shall, within a reasonable time and in a manner to be provided in the Bylaws, relinquish control of the Condominium Association and shall deliver to the Condominium Association, at Developer's expense, all property of the Unit Owners and of the Condominium Association held or controlled by Developer.

Within seventy-five (75) days after the Unit Owners other than Developer are entitled to elect a member or members of the Board of Directors, the Condominium Association shall call, and give not less than sixty (60) days notice of, a meeting at which such Directors are to be elected, which elections shall otherwise be held in accordance with the provisions of the Bylaws.

ARTICLE IX

The Board of Directors shall elect and may by majority vote separate or remove from office the President, Secretary, Treasurer, and as many Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers as the Board of Directors shall deem advisable from time to time. The President shall be elected from the membership of the Board of Directors, but no other officer need be a Director. The same person may hold two offices, the duties of which are not incompatible; provided, however, that the office of President and Vice President shall not be held by the same person, nor shall the office of President and Secretary or Assistant Secretary be held by the same person.

ARTICLE X

The names and addresses of the members of the first Board of Directors, who, subject to the provisions of the laws of Florida, these Articles and the Bylaws, shall hold office until the first annual meeting of the Condominium Association after recordation of the Declaration, and thereafter until their successors are selected and have qualified, are as follows:

ARTICLE XI

ARTICLE XIII

The original Bylaws of the Condominium Association shall be adopted by the approval of a majority of the subscribers to these Articles at a meeting at which each of the subscribers are present, and, thereafter, the Bylaws may be amended, altered or rescinded only by affirmative vote of seventy-five (75%) percent of the votes entitled to be cast by members of the Condominium Association at a duly called and held meeting of the members.

ARTICLE XIV

Every Director and every officer of the Condominium Association shall be indemnified by the Condominium Association to the maximum extent allowed by law against all expenses and liabilities, including attorney's fees and legal assistant's fees, reasonably included by or imposed upon him in connection with any proceeding to which they may be a party, or in which they may become involved, by reason of his being or having been a Director or officer of the Condominium Association, whether or not they are a Director or officer at the time such expenses are incurred, except in such cases in which the director or officer seeking such reimbursement or indemnification, the indemnification shall apply only if the Board of Directors approves such settlement and reimbursement as being in the best interests of the Condominium Association. Such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which such Director or officer may be entitled.

ARTICLE XV

Subject to Section 6.4 of the Declaration, an amendment or amends to these Articles may be proposed by the board of Directors acting upon a vote of the majority of the Directors, or by the members of the Condominium Association owning a majority of the Units in the Condominium, whether meeting as members or by instrument in writing signed by them. Upon any amendment or amendments to these Articles being proposed by the Board of Directors or members, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be transmitted to the President of the Condominium Association, or the acting chief executive officer in the absence of the President, who shall thereupon call a special meeting of the members of the Condominium Association for a date not sooner than fourteen (14) days, or later than sixty (60) days from the receipt of the proposed amendment or amendments. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to give each member written notice of such meeting stating the time and place of the meeting and reciting the proposed amendment or amendments in reasonably detailed form. This notice shall be given in the same manner as notice of the call of a special meeting of the members as the procedure for giving such notice is described in the Bylaws; provided, that proposed amendments may be considered and voted upon at annual meetings of the members. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be properly given when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the member at his post office address as it appears on the records of the Condominium Association, with postage prepaid. Any member may, by written waiver of notice signed by such member, waive such notice, and such waiver when filed in the records of the Condominium Association, whether before, during or after the holding of the meeting, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice to such member. At such meeting, the amendment or amendments proposed shall not be amended or altered, in whole or in part, without the prior approval by seventy-five (75%) percent of the Unit Owners. Thereupon, such amendment or amendments shall be transcribed and certified in such form as may be necessary to file the same in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida. A certified copy of each such amendment shall be recorded in the Public records of Pasco County, Florida, within thirty (30) days from the date on which the same is filed in the office of the Secretary of State. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article XV, no amendment which shall abridge, amend or alter the right of Developer to designate and select members of the Board of Directors, as provided in Article VIII of these Articles, may be adopted or become effective without the prior written consent of Developer.
