RECEIVED
CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT
IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF DADE, FLORIDA

Said organization is organized and shall be operated exclusively as a tax-exempt charitable organization within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code"), or corresponding section of any future federal tax code and to such end, the Corporation is organized for the following purpose: To heighten awareness of childhood cancer through the development of educational programs, materials and lectures to promulgate information to the community regarding the need for funding, research and "modern" treatment; to raise funds for such activities and to contribute for any of the purposes described in Section 170(c)(1) or (2)(B) of the Code.

The foregoing enumeration of specific purposes shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the powers of this Corporation as conferred by the laws of the State of Florida and shall be understood to be in furtherance of, and in addition to, such general powers conferred on corporations not for profit under the provisions of Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, as the same may be amended from time to time, or the provisions of any similar law.

The Corporation shall possess and exercise all the powers and privileges granted by Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, or by any other law of Florida together with all powers necessary or convenient to the conduct, promotion or attainment of the activities or purposes of the Corporation, limited only by the restriction set forth in these Articles of Incorporation. Further, the Corporation shall have the power to acquire by purchase, gift, lease, devise, bequest or otherwise, real or personal property of any kind, and wherever situate, and improve, hold, use and manage same; sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer or otherwise dispose of, all or any part of its property, real or personal; and make contracts in connection therewith. The Corporation shall incur liabilities and borrow money at such rates of interest as the Corporation shall determine advisable; except, hold, administer, invest and disburse such funds as may be given to it by any person or corporation; and do such acts as a Corporation shall determine necessary or convenient to effectuate or sustain its corporate purpose.

The directors will be elected and appointed as stated in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

In order to comply with the restrictions and limitations impose upon a tax-exempt charitable organization under the code 501 (c)(3), the rights and powers the Corporation shall be limited as follows:

No part of the net earnings of this organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private person, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purpose set forth herein. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c)(2) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of this Corporation, assets remaining shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or a state or local government, for public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Contempt Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purpose.
