House of Timothy, Inc. is a non-profit corporation organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations, under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

House of Timothy, Inc.'s mission is to serve veterans in need, and individuals recovering from addiction, and to assist homeless people, run away youth, provide resources for mothers with children, and provide support, encouragement, leadership, and assistance to fatherless boys. We will also operate the Project Exodus program which addresses human trafficking, sex trafficking, and drug trafficking, and the Element 26 program for educational scholarships, mentoring and entrepreneurship training. In addition, we will operate Element 26 Academy, an alternative private Christian education academy for at-risk boys to complete grades 6 – 12 to prevent future juvenile detention or incarceration or the need for similar interventions. We will also operate a program called Ahava Companionship Services to provide needed non-nursing and nonmedical services to include, but not limited to, shopping, cleaning, preparing meals, transportation, limited personal care services, and companionship services to elderly, disabled, and handicapped individuals. We will also operate Gents Boutique and Ladybug Boutique of Orlando to provide clothing and accessories to those in need and to provide revenues to the nonprofit. We also operate Orlando Generals which will be the AAU team for the boys.

To maximize our effectiveness, we may seek to collaborate with other non-profit organizations which qualify as tax-exempt corporations under section 501(c) (3).

ARTICLE IV

NON-PROFIT NATURE / BENEFITS

4.01 Non-profit Nature

House of Timothy, Inc. is not organized and shall not be operated for the private gain of any person. The property of the corporation is irrevocably dedicated to its charitable, religious, educational or scientific purposes. No part of the assets, receipts, or net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to, any individual. The corporation may, however, pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, and make other payments and distributions consistent with these Articles.

4.02 Personal Liability

No officer or director of this corporation shall be personally liable for the debts or obligations of House of Timothy, Inc. of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property or assets of the officers or directors be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of this corporation.

4.03 Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

4.03 Prohibited Distributions

No part of the net earnings, or properties of this corporation, on dissolution or otherwise, shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers or other private person or individual, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III, Section 3.01.

4.04 Restricted Activities

No substantial part of the corporation's activities shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene (including the publishing or distribution of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

4.05 Prohibited Activities

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax as an organization described by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
