Articles of Incorporation of The Gift Goes On, Inc.

I, the undersigned natural person of the age of twenty-one(21) years or more, who is a citizen of the state of Florida, acting as Incorporator of a corporation under the Florida Non-Profit Corporation Act, adopt the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation.

I.

The name of the corporation is The Gift Goes On, Inc.

II.

The place in this state where the principal office of the corporation is to be is 3393 Viceroy Drive North, Jacksonville, Florida, County of Duval. The corporation may have such other offices, as may from time to time be designated by its Board of Directors.

III.

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious and educational purposes, including, for such purposes, the conducting of religious worship and the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

IV.

The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by the Board of Directors, in accordance with the Bylaws. The method of election and the term of office of the directors are specified in the Bylaws of the Corporation as follows: Each director shall hold office until he/she resigns or his/her directorship is terminated by a majority vote of the directors in office, at which time a new director will be elected by a quorum of the directors.

VIII.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational or religious purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

IX.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distribution in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Third hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation.

X.

The corporation is a nonprofit corporation.

XI.

The period of its duration is perpetual.

XII.

The corporation will not have members.

XIII.

To further the above purpose, the corporation shall have full power to purchase, lease or otherwise acquire property, to publish a newspaper or magazine, to own and/or operate radio or television stations, support missionaries, raise funds, and to do those things necessary to promulgate the Gospel in an effective and efficient manner.

Having been named as registered agent and to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity.
