ARTICLE IX – LIMITATIONS

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in the furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 3 hereof. The corporation may reimburse its directors and officers for all expenses reasonably incurred in performing services rendered to or for the furtherance of the purposes set forth in the Article 3.

The organization will not attempt to influence legislation as a substantial part of its activities and will not participate at all, nor intervene (including the publishing or distribution of statements) in any campaign for or against political candidates for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income taxes under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which care deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE X - TERM

The period of duration of this corporation is perpetual, unless dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE XI - DISSOLUTION

Upon dissolution of this corporation, the remaining assets, after payments or provisions for payments of all debts and liabilities of the corporation, shall be distributed to one or more organizations which are organized and exist exclusively for exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such charitable purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such charitable purposes.
