Article VIII – Additional Provisions

Limitation on Private Inurement

No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its member directors, officers, or other private persons, except that this corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these articles.

Limitation on Political Activities

No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided by Section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code), and this corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

Limitation on Nonprofit Activities

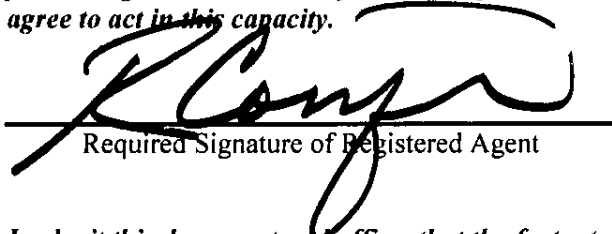

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or any future federal tax code or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future tax code.

Dedication of Assets

The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to the charitable purpose of providing accessible and affordable healthcare options to its surrounding communities by means of low cost acupuncture and herbal medicine. Upon the dissolution or winding up of the corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this corporation including the return of assets held by the corporation upon condition requiring return, transfer or conveyance shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation, or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for the charitable purpose of providing accessible and affordable healthcare options to its surrounding communities by means of acupuncture and/or herbal medicine and which has established its tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Service., or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Assets held by the corporation upon condition requiring return, transfer or conveyance, which condition occurs by reason of the dissolution, shall be returned, transferred or conveyed in accordance with such requirements.

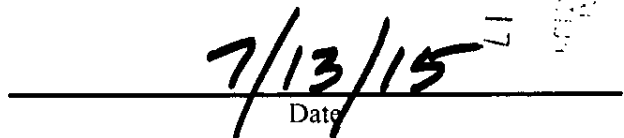

Having been named as Registered Agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as Registered Agent and agree to act in this capacity.
