ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

Motivate The Youth, Inc.

A Florida Corporation Non Profit

Pursuant to the provisions of section 617.1006, Florida Statutes, the undersigned Florida nonprofit corporation adopts the following articles or incorporation.

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation shall be Motivate The Youth, Inc. (the "Corporation"). Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational and religious purposes including for such purpose the making of distributions to organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code).

ARTICLE II

The street address of the initial principal office of the Corporation shall be 190 N Old Corry Field Road Apt. 604, Pensacola, Florida 32507.

ARTICLE III

The corporation was specifically created as a charitable, educational and religious organization.

The Corporation shall also be authorized to engage in and transact any and all charitable, educational or religious services within and with the State of Florida or United States for which corporations not for profit may be incorporated under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, as amended and supplemented. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall insure to the benefit of, or be distributed to its members, trustees, directors, officers or other private persons except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of section 501 (c)(3) purposes. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate

The method of election of directors is as stated in the bylaws.

ARTICLE V

The Corporation shall have all of the powers conferred upon corporations organized pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, as amended and supplemented.

Notwithstanding any provision contained in these articles, the corporation is required to distribute its income for each taxable year at the times and in the manner as not to subject the corporation to tax under section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, the Corporation shall not, during any period and to the extent it is a private foundation described in section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code, (a) engage in any act of self-dealing; (b) retain any excess business holdings; (c) make any investments in a manner as to subject the corporation to tax under section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code; or (d) make any taxable expenditure as defined in section 4945(d) of the internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE VI

The corporation shall be perpetual. Upon the dissolution of this non-profit corporation assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code or corresponding section of any future Federal Tax code, or shall be distributed to the Federal government or to a state or local government for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations, as the court shall determine.

ARTICLE VII
