Article 3. Purposes

This Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and religious purposes. To this end, the Corporation shall at all times be operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended. All funds, whether income or principal, and whether acquired by gift or contribution or otherwise, shall be devoted to said purposes.

The specific purposes for which the Corporation is organized are:

(a) To provide funds outside of normal operating funds for the benefit of the Church and the Church's pastoral and administrative staff, programs, outreach programs, capital projects and activities.

(b) To carry out the Corporation's purpose by engaging in any lawful activities and exercising any powers allowed by law in furtherance of the Corporation's purpose provided, however, that nothing may be done in contravention of the express limitations contained in the Prohibited Activities below.

Article 4. Prohibited Activities

At all times the following shall operate as conditions restricting the operations and activities of the Corporation:

(a) No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or others private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purpose set forth in the purpose clause hereof.

(b) No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall constitute the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or any initiative or referendum before the public, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including by publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article 5. Distributions upon Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all the liabilities of the Corporation, shall transfer the remaining assets of the Corporation (in accordance with the provisions of Florida Statutes section 617.1406) to the Presbyterian Foundation (USA), 200 East 12th Street, Jeffersonville, Indiana 47130, provided that the Foundation is then in existence and qualifies as an exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), otherwise the remaining assets of the Corporation shall be distributed to such one or more entities that are organized and operated for substantially the same purposes as this Corporation or exclusively for religious purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine.

Article 6. Directors

The method of election of the Directors of the Corporation shall be set forth in the Bylaws of the Corporation. As required by Florida Statutes section 617.0803, the Board of Directors shall consist of at least three or more individuals.

Article 7. Members

The Corporation shall have members as set forth in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

Article 8. Initial Registered Agent
